Safe-Crackers Get Cash at Denton Store

Loss Undetermined As Yeggs Strike 2nd Time in Week

Washington C. H. police today were looking for the yeggs who battered open a safe in the H. H. Denton Implement Store, 851 Columbus Ave., early Sunday, escaping with an undetermined amount of cash and leaving only meager clues behind.

It was the second safe-cracking job in the county in a week, and although the methods of operation were similar, police did not say whether they thought there was any connection between the two. Last week the safe in the Joe Evans Market in Bloomingburg was robbed of $500.

The Denton store burglary was discovered about 5:30 a. m. Sunday by Sgt. Charles Foster and Patrolman Elmer Kelly who were on night patrol. They said their suspicions were aroused when they saw a rear window that was closed at 2:15 a. m. ajar when they checked later.

Going inside, they found the safe had been taken from the office into the shops behind it and battered open with an ax and big iron bars. Police theorize that it must have been the work of professionals, because the safe had been torn open in such a way as not to disturb the tear gas cell fastened to the inside of the door.

After Foster and Kelly made their preliminary report, the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation at the London Prison Farm was called on for help.

A SPECIALIST of the BCI, Capt. Haggard and Patrolman Rodman Scott went to the scene and found entrance had been gained by prying open the front door to get to the office. Then the safecrackers un-

Ike Readies Brief Appeal For Voters

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower readied his final brief appeal to the voters today while grappling with acute world problems centering in battle-inflamed Hungary and Egypt.

Eisenhower plans to make an election eve talk in the course of a coast-to-coast television broadcast on the three major networks starting at 11 p. m. EST.

While there was no official word, the expectation was that he would stress a get-out-the-vote angle, leaving the tub-thumping for the Republican Party and for himself to Vice President Nixon and other participants.

What effect the gunfire eruptions in Egypt and Hungary, with their worldwide repercussions, may have on the President's election bid is a question the voters will answer Tuesday.

Eisenhower himself appears confident he will win. Many of his staff members are outspokenly so.

Sunday was no day of rest for the President. He attended church with his wife and their son and daughter-in-law, then spent 15 minutes with Secretary of State Dulles at Walter Reed Army Hospital before going into a long White House conference. Attending were Acting Secretary Herbert Hoover Jr., Director Allen W. Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency and other officials.

An outcome of the conference was a message to Soviet Premier Bulganin, in which Eisenhower said that world opinion has suffered "shock and dismay at the Soviet attack on the peoples and government of Hungary."

Bulganin Urges U. S., Soviet Merge To Halt British Stab

LONDON (AP) — The Soviet Union called tonight for joint American-Soviet military intervention — backed by the United Nations — to stop British-French "aggression" in the Middle East.

Premier Nikolai Bulganin made the appeal in a message to President Eisenhower, Moscow radio reported.

Bulganin told Eisenhower: "If this war is not stopped, it contains the danger of turning into a third world war."

Moscow also announced that Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitriy Shepilov had sent a message to the United Nations Security Council urging it to render military and other aid to Egypt.

Bulganin's letter said:

61 Million Seen Going To Polls in Election Tuesday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
An America newly concerned with bloodshed in Hungary and shooting in the Middle East will choose Tuesday a president to guide the nation's affairs for the next four years.

An estimated 61 million or more voters will decide whether to continue Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower in the White House or replace him with Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson.

They will decide too which party shall control Congress in the next two years.

Here Are Facts About Election

About 25 Pct. Voters May Fail to Ballot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Key facts about Tuesday's election:

To be elected—A president and vice president; 35 U. S. senators in 33 states; 432 U. S. representatives in 47 states (Maine already has elected two Republicans and one Democrat); 29 state governors numerous other state and local officials.

Voting strength—Eligible to vote are 80,158,364 persons. State officials have estimated that the vote will aggregate 61,417,750, or about 76 per cent of those eligible.

If that many vote, it will be an increase of about 10 per cent over the 1952 total. Even so, about one out of every four will fail to ballot.

This is what the major party presidential and vice presidential candidates are doing.

President Eisenhower—In Washington. Makes closed circuit television talk to Republican rally in Boston tonight. Makes five-minute talk during hour-long GOP program on ABC, CBS and NBC television networks and CBS radio (11 p. m. EST).

Adlai E. Stevenson — Spoke at breakfast rally in Minneapolis; makes speech from Boston on CBS radio and television networks at 10 p. m. EST.

Sen. Estes Kefauver — Campaigns in Ohio, then flies to Washington to speak briefly on radio-TV program with Stevenson.

Vice President Nixon — In Washington, makes brief talk during GOP radio-TV program with Eisenhower.

Tuesday: Eisenhower — Drives to Gettysburg, Pa., to vote, then returns to Washington.

Stevenson — Votes at Half Day, Ill.

Kefauver — Campaigns in Florida, then flies to Chattanooga, Tenn., to vote.

Nixon — In Washington, having voted by California absentee ballot.

With the campaign kept at fever heat by the city and Miami Trace school bond issue proposals and the vigorous campaign waged by Fayette County Republicans, indications are that an unusually heavy vote will be cast here Tuesday.

The Board of Elections office pointed out Monday morning that 13,360 ballots for the general election (presidential and state) have been printed. One of the staff commented that "we might have to get additional ballots for some precincts."

The ballot order was based on the vote in previous elections: 10-831 in the presidential election in 1952; the 9,003 in 1950 and the 6,903 in 1954.

The consensus around the Board of Elections office Monday was that opinion polls and the pulse-taking of political reporters and commentators point almost unanimously to Eisenhower's re-election. But the polls have been proved fallible at times in the past.

The same signs point to a close battle for control of Congress, now held by the Democrats.

Thirty-five senators will be elected from 33 states. All but three of the 435 seats in the U. S. House of Representatives will be filled. Maine elected two Republicans and one Democrat Sept. 10.

VOTERS IN 29 states will elect governors. A host of other state and local officials will also be chosen.

An election eve survey of political leaders, reporters and others by the Associated Press indicated that if these observers read the signs correctly, Eisenhower will get four times as many electoral votes as Stevenson. The same observers thought the battle for Congress could go either way.

With 266 electoral votes needed to win, Eisenhower captured 442 to Stevenson's 89 in their 1952 race. The popular vote was 33,836,252 for Eisenhower and 27,314,992 for Stevenson, who took just nine Southern and border states.

Along with that Eisenhower victory, the GOP won control of Congress, but two years ago the Democrats won it back.

The Democratic margin in the Senate is now 49-47. In the House it is 230-201, with four vacancies. Each party held two of the seats now vacant.

Making for uncertainty about the outcome of the election is the foreign situation.

There has not been time to assess accurately the impact of Russia's attacks on the people of Hungary, or of the Israeli, British and French attacks on Egypt.

Stevenson already had made perhaps his sharpest attack of the campaign on Eisenhower administration policies in the Middle East, which he said had led to "catastrophic failure."

EISENHOWER replied that he was proud of those policies. And he said that "I have been undisturbed by the strident voices of those few who seem to be seeking to turn world events to political profit."

In his campaign windup speech in Chicago Saturday night, Stevenson described Eisenhower as one who "has never had the inclination and now lacks the energy for fulltime work at the world's toughest job."

Then he said that in the event of a GOP victory Tuesday Nixon would become "the dominant figure in the Republican party," and asked: "Do you want this man as commander in chief to exercise power over peace and war?"

This followed the pattern which Stevenson had set previously in raising only by implication the question of Eisenhower's health, the heart attack in September

Heavy Vote Seen Here

With the campaign kept at fever heat by the city and Miami Trace school bond issue proposals and the vigorous campaign waged by Fayette County Republicans, indications are that an unusually heavy vote will be cast here Tuesday.

The Board of Elections office pointed out Monday morning that 13,360 ballots for the general election (presidential and state) have been printed. One of the staff commented that "we might have to get additional ballots for some precincts."

The ballot order was based on the vote in previous elections: 10-831 in the presidential election in 1952; the 9,003 in 1950 and the 6,903 in 1954.

The consensus around the Board of Elections office Monday was that the total vote will run around 11-000. However, there are those who feel the school bond issues, especially the one in the county outside Washington C. H., will send it considerably higher.

For the city school bond issue and levy proposals, 6,750 ballots were printed and for the Miami Trace school bond issue proposal 6,610 were printed. These figures represent the estimates of the vote by the Board of Elections, although its members shied away from making predictions.

THE POLLS in the county's 45 voting precincts will open at 6:30 a. m. Tuesday and close at 6:30 p. m.

International Police Force Set Up by U. N.

Smaller Nations Slated To Provide Manpower To Seek Egypt Truce

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The General Assembly early today ordered a U. N. command setup for an international police force to work for a cease-fire in Egypt.

Britain and France said they would halt all military action as soon as Egypt and Israel agreed to a police force to stop the fighting, secure the withdrawal of the Israeli forces and get the Suez Canal back into operations.

It appeared unlikely Israel would agree immediately. The Israeli government sent the U. N. a five-part demand for clarification of the latest U. N. cease-fire call, and Israeli Delegate Abba Eban warned the assembly that "the stationing of a force on the territory of Israel is not possible without the consent of the government of Israel."

There was no immediate reaction from Cairo.

The Assembly voted 57-0 at 12:17 a. m. to set up the police force. The resolution for its creation was sponsored by Canada, Colombia and Norway. Nineteen countries abstained.

THE VOTE CAME about an hour and half before the announcement that British and French troops had landed in Egypt, where Israel has occupied Sinai.

The new command will recruit officers immediately from small countries for "an emergency international force to secure and supervise the cessation of hostilities."

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, author of the plan, will try to get "the necessary troops" from among 71 of the U. N.'s 76 members, barring only Britain, Nationalist China, France, the Soviet Union and the U. S.

U. N. Hungarian Move Stalled

Enforcement Seen Blocked by Russia

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Deep pessimism engulfed the United Nations today over the virtual impossibility of enforcing a resolution, overwhelmingly adopted by the General Assembly, demanding the withdrawal of Russian troops from suffering Hungary.

Delegates cited two hard facts:

1. The anti-Communist rebellion, after a brief hour of victory, appeared to have been destroyed by Russian steel, leaving the Kremlin and a clique of Budapest puppets in full control of the country.

2. Soviet Chief Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev virtually served notice in advance that a U. N. vote for an investigation in Hungary, much less for free elections, would be summarily rejected.

The prevailing view was that the Russian grip would not be loosened by words.

The United States proposed the resolution in an emergency session of the General Assembly Sunday night. It contained eight sections. The main ones called on the Russians to end their armed attacks on the Hungarians, to withdraw their forces, and to permit U. N. observers to enter Hungary and make an investigation.

APPLAUSE halted Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. when he read the sentence proclaiming that the U. N. "affirms the right of the Hungarian people to a government responsive to its national aspirations and dedicated to its independence and well-being."

The resolution was approved 50-8 with 15 abstentions.

The only negative votes were cast by the Soviet bloc. Among the abstainers were Yugoslavia and several Arab countries, Iraq, Egypt, Jordan, Libya, Saudi Arabia, Syria and Yemen.

Sobolev disputed the right of the U. N. even to take up the American resolution. He called it a "crude violation" of the U. N. Charter's stipulation against intervention in the domestic affairs of a country.

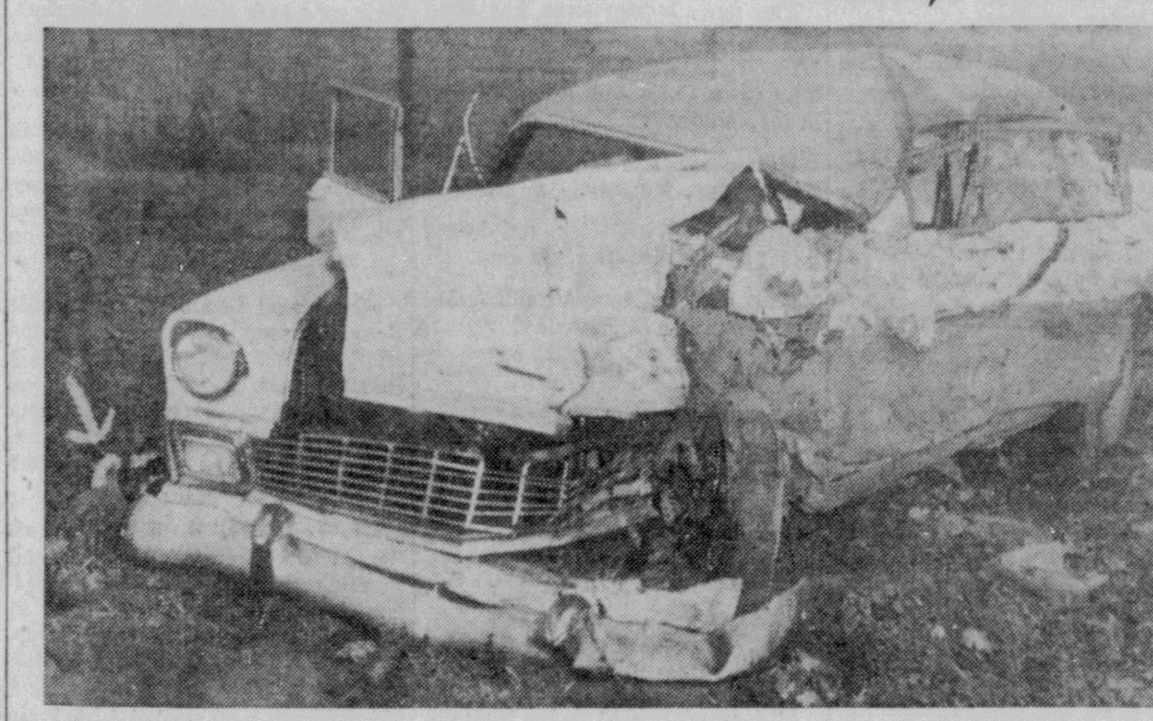

He charged the resolution was designed to divert attention from the "aggression" in Egypt. He said it was put up to gain time until British and French troops landed there.

BRITISH SAY EGYPT TALKS SURRENDER

Reesville Crash Kills Man, Wife

TWO DIED in the wreckage of this car at Reesville Sunday morning. Arrow points to the body of Mrs. Esther R. Shook, Follansbee, W. Va., who along with her husband, Peter J., lost their lives when their car collided with another vehicle in dense fog.

A West Virginia couple was killed and a Columbus man injured when their cars collided in the dense fog on CCC Highway just north of the Reesville crossroads, 13 miles west of Washington C. H., Sunday morning.

Mrs. Esther Ruth Shook, 63, of Follansbee, W. Va., was killed instantly when she was hurled through the windshield by the impact. Her husband, Peter John Shook, 64, was dead on arrival at Clinton Memorial Hospital after being extricated from behind the twisted steering wheel of his car.

Paul F. Deighton, 23, driver of the other car, was released from the Clinton hospital after being treated for lacerations and abrasions.

THE SHOOKS had left the Herefordshire Motel, west of Washington C. H., shortly before the accident and were headed for Louisville, Ky. The Deighton car was headed for Columbus.

According to State Highway Patrolman M. T. Hobbes, both cars were almost in the center of the highway because of the heavy fog.

The deaths are the 10th and 11th in Clinton County this year.

The bodies were removed to the Littleton Funeral Home in Sabina.

TWO PERSONS were treated at Memorial Hospital here for injuries received in one of the four crashes investigated by highway patrolmen in Fayette County during the weekend.

Mrs. Dorothy Hobold, 53, Cincinnati, and Cleatus Holman, Cincinnati, a passenger in her car, were taken to the hospital and released after their injuries were dressed. Mrs. Hobold suffered severe lip and leg cuts and Holman's left knee and forehead were bruised and cut. Their car was virtually demolished.

The Hobold automobile, headed east on the CCC Highway about four miles west of Washington C. H., crashed into two pickup trucks, one being towed by the other and headed west. The trucks had jackknifed into the eastbound lane of traffic, when the driver, Robert E. Jewell, 30, Wheeling, W. Va., stopped suddenly to avoid hitting a car driven by a woman turning left in front of him.

The accident occurred at 3:15 p. m. Saturday.

Jewell was cited by State Highway Patrolman Robert Hackmeyer for reckless operation and released under $20 bond.

ANOTHER PICKUP TRUCK tandem was involved in an accident near Madison Mills at 11:20 a. m. Saturday. According to the State Highway Patrol report, George Dewberry, Cincinnati, driver of the tandem, headed west on the CCC Highway, swung too far to the left as a car, driven by Herschel Mitchell, was passing him and the cars scraped. Damage was slight and no one was hurt.

During the fog at 6:20 a. m. Sunday, Harold C. Rodgers, 47, Mount Sterling, driving north on Route 62, lost control when he applied brakes on his automobile to avoid a truck, driven by Joseph Cesarini of near Mount Sterling. His car tore through a guard rail and fence and turned over and came to rest on its wheels in the field. Rodgers received lacerations on hands and head, but they were not regarded early Saturday.

Dulles, who is 68, was stricken Saturday.

Doctors Say Dulles Wins Cancer Bout

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cancer had infected a section of intestine removed from Secretary of State Dulles, it has been disclosed.

A State Department announcement said an examination at the time of the emergency operation Saturday, and X-rays later, indicated the malignancy had not spread beyond the diseased portions.

Dulles' condition was described as "good" in the wake of the 2½-hour operation at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital.

Doctors said they expect the secretary to spend about six weeks in recuperation, some three weeks of that time in the hospital.

This means Dulles will be immobilized at a time when the United States is grappling with crises in Eastern Europe and the Middle East. In his absence, the State Department is headed by Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr.

Dulles, who is 68, was stricken Saturday.

Allies No Longer Trusting U. S. Leadership, Adlai Says

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson said today that the United States is losing its influence around the world "because our friends and allies no longer trust our leadership."

He told a cheering, handclapping crowd at a breakfast rally which attracted upwards of 1,500, that the upheaval in Eastern Europe and the Middle East "is a challenge both to the free world and to communism."

The United States, he said, "is one great power that can take the lead and save the world from this creeping anarchy and disintegration."

He said that what he called Eisenhower's "negligence on questions of peace and war may plunge the whole world into the horror of hydrogen war."

"And negligence," Stevenson said, "is precisely what we are getting."

He repeated previous assertions that President Eisenhower was away from his post on occasions of crisis after crisis, and declared:

"NOW NO ONE begrudges the President his recreation, but peace is a fulltime job."

"How do you reconcile the fact that the President holds forth in the pulpit while his choirboys sneak around back alleys with sandbags?"

The answer, he said, is that the President "doesn't know what's going on."

Parachutists Landing in Port Said Area

Nasser's Position Now Precarious after Losing Sinai Region

LONDON (AP)—Waves of British and French parachutists landed in the Port Said area at the north end of the Suez Canal today. Within hours, the British announced, the Egyptian commander there began discussing surrender terms with the invaders. A cease-fire was declared.

The developments meant the situation of Egyptian President Nasser was becoming more precarious by the hour. Last week the Egyptians lost their vast Sinai Peninsula, east of the canal, to invading Israeli forces.

The announced purpose of the British-French invasion is to safeguard the canal—now closed to shipping—and to separate the belligerents in the Israeli-Egyptian fighting. The British say they are willing to turn over control of the canal area to U. N. forces, once the situation is stabilized.

The parachute troops landed in the canal zone only 4 months and 22 days after the British surrendered to Egypt the military bases they long had occupied there. Nasser nationalized the Suez Canal July 26.

THE INVASION came shortly after the U. N. General Assembly, seeking to restore peace in both Hungary and the Middle East, ordered an international police command set up to establish and supervise a cease-fire in Egypt.

The British and French government had gone ahead with their long-heralded invasion, but said they would welcome the U. N. police force as a shield between warring Egypt and Israel as soon as the two Middle East governments accepted U. N. proposals for peace, and there was a settlement of the Suez question.

The French and British parachutists started landing just after dawn, apparently to seize a bridgehead for land forces at sea on a large armada sailing from Cyprus.

The command at Cyprus said the operations went according to plan. Some resistance from mortar and machinegun fire was met.

The Egyptian high command claimed the first wave of 3,000 was "annihilated." But British-French headquarters at Cyprus said the "operations are going well" despite some resistance.

French and British ground forces embarked in an invasion armada at Cyprus Sunday, but there was no hint when they would be included landing. The invasion fleet included warships, transports and support ships.

JUST BEFORE the drop of parachutists was reported the two Western powers announced their decision to go ahead with their "police action" in the Suez area.

They said would cease all military operations as soon as Israel and Egypt accept a U. N. plan for an international police to enforce the peace between them and to get the Suez Canal back into operation.

The waves of paratroopers took off from Cyprus in predawn darkness.

Most of the British troops were regulars. Ten to 15 per cent had been in combat before. Many were veterans of Britain's bloody battle against the EOKA underground on Cyprus.

Prior to the landings, British and French bombers had pounded coastal and anti-aircraft installations in the canal area in a softening-up operation.

Low-level bombing attacks also were reported north of Cairo. British-French headquarters already had claimed the Egyptian air force has ceased to exist as a result of the steady attacks last week of the British and French planes on the airports.

Word of the invasion was flashed after a turbulent day in London, where 20,000 demonstrators milled about Whitehall, seat of Britain's government, demanding that Prime Minister Eden resign.

One policeman was dragged from his horse and eight others were injured before order was restored.

RPA Restates Position on Citizen Panel

One hundred members of the Rural Parents Assn., the organized opposition to the Miami Trace bond issue, met at the Country Club Saturday night to map last-minute strategy against the proposal.

The group went on record as reiterating the stand for the creation of a Citizens Committee to review Fayette County school problems, declaring that "county school officials have blocked creation of such a committee even though formation of such committees is provided by law."

It has been the RPA's contention that such a committee would give all of Fayette County fair and equitable representation on a basis of six rural members and three city members.

The group voted its thanks to "those who have given so untiringly of their efforts in an attempt to 'clear the field' for better education for the children of Fayette County."

City's New Emergency Fire Siren To Be Placed in Courthouse Tower

The new emergency 7½ horsepower fire siren, purchased some time ago by the city of Washington, C. H., is to be set up in the Courthouse bell tower in order that it may be more clearly heard for a distance of at least five miles in all directions.

This was decided upon at the Monday morning session of the Fayette County commissioners when permission was asked, and granted, from them by City Manager J. F. Parkinson, who accompanied by Fire Chief George Hall, met with the commissioners.

THE NEW SIREN will be used only for emergencies such as alerting volunteer and off-duty firemen when the fire department requires extra help to fight a more dangerous-than-usual fire. It also will be used for any other special alarms such as air raids. For ordinary fires the regular siren in the city building will be used by the fire department. The city pays all expenses of the new installation.

The new, larger siren has been bought for the community on recommendation of the Ohio Inspection Bureau.

AT THIS session the commissioners granted a request made by County Extension Agent W. W. Montgomery and his assistant, Philip Grover, for a grant of $600 from the county to cover the 1956 expense of brucellosis tests on Fayette County cattle.

The tests, to be conducted under the state veterinarian department's supervision, will take place here between Nov. 20 and Dec. 10. A similar test, it is said, probably will be conducted annually. It is known as the "area milk ring test."

THE COMMISSIONERS at Monday's session, in addition to the usual routine duties including approval of bills, approved a resolution on their minutes for authorization to the county engineer for two more small road improvements. One was for a new surface seal coat on 3.056 miles of the Harmony road in Jasper Township, between the Palmer road and U. S. 35.

The other was a similar improvement on 4.67 miles of the Ford road in the same township between State Rt. 729 and U. S. Rt. 35.

FIVE DAY WEATHER FORECAST
Temperatures will average 6 to 8 degrees above normal; normal high 52-57; normal low 36-37. Little change in temperature through Friday, turning colder about Saturday. Precipitation will average less than 1-10 inch, in showers about Saturday.

Fair Weather Seen For Eastern U. S.

CHICAGO (AP)—Mild temperatures and generally fair skies dominated the weather picture east of the Mississippi River and along the Pacific Coast today.

However, showers and thunderstorms sprinkled the Plains States, chill air ranged between the Rockies and the Mississippi River and snow flurries dusted the northern and central Rocky Mountains.

A blanket of fog hovered over the Great Lakes, Ohio valley and portions of the Mississippi valley for the fourth successive day.

As one of its last bids for support of its party's candidates, the Fayette County Republican Women's Club gave a tea Sunday afternoon in Republican headquarters on E. Market St.

More than 200 were there to get acquainted with the candidates for county offices: Lowell Fess, candidate for the state Senate; Albert Daniels, candidate for Congress and Mrs. Daniels; and William Saxbe, candidate for attorney general.

Presiding at the tea table, centered with huge arrangements of chrysanthemums, were Miss Mary Wright, publicity; Miss Garnet Huston, president; Miss Lillie Henkle; Mrs. Charles S. Hire, vice president; Mrs. Charles Wagner, treasurer, and Mrs. Wendell White-side, secretary.

Mrs. Madeline Hoyt, president of the sixth district Republican women's organization, came from Chillicothe to the tea.

Mrs. Walter Sollars and Mrs. Hazel Devins were co-chairmen of the affair.

Of persons 65 and over in the U. S., 33 per cent are living on social security and other benefits; 30 per cent are still at work.

STENGEL FOR JUDGE

George W. Stengel, candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals on the nonpartisan judicial ballot, seeks to fill a vacancy that was caused by the creation of a new judicial district. He is an exceptionally well qualified judicial candidate - in fact, one of the best in Ohio. Mr. Stengel is a man with high ideals, exceptional ability, the best of training, extensive experience and judicial temperament. He measures up to the highest standards for judicial service.

RPA Restates Position on Citizen Panel

One hundred members of the Rural Parents Assn., the organized opposition to the Miami Trace bond issue, met at the Country Club Saturday night to map last-minute strategy against the proposal.

The group went on record as reiterating the stand for the creation of a Citizens Committee to review Fayette County school problems, declaring that "county school officials have blocked creation of such a committee even though formation of such committees is provided by law."

It has been the RPA's contention that such a committee would give all of Fayette County fair and equitable representation on a basis of six rural members and three city members.

The group voted its thanks to "those who have given so untiringly of their efforts in an attempt to 'clear the field' for better education for the children of Fayette County."

City's New Emergency Fire Siren To Be Placed in Courthouse Tower

The new emergency 7½ horsepower fire siren, purchased some time ago by the city of Washington C. H., is to be set up in the Courthouse bell tower in order that it may be more clearly heard for a distance of at least five miles in all directions.

This was decided upon at the Monday morning session of the Fayette County commissioners when permission was asked, and granted, from them by City Manager J. F. Parkinson, who accompanied by Fire Chief George Hall, met with the commissioners.

THE NEW SIREN will be used only for emergencies such as alerting volunteer and off-duty firemen when the fire department requires extra help to fight a more dangerous-than-usual fire. It also will be used for any other special alarms such as air raids. For ordinary fires the regular siren in the city building will be used by the fire department. The city pays all expenses of the new installation.

The new, larger siren has been bought for the community on recommendation of the Ohio Inspection Bureau.

AT THIS session the commissioners granted a request made by County Extension Agent W. W. Montgomery and his assistant, Philip Grover, for a grant of $600 from the county to cover the 1956 expense of brucellosis tests on Fayette County cattle.

The tests, to be conducted under the state veterinarian department's supervision, will take place here between Nov. 20 and Dec. 10. A similar test, it is said, probably will be conducted annually. It is known as the "area milk ring test."

'Double Voting' In Xenia Probed

COLUMBUS (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown left today for Xenia to investigate reports of plans for "double voting" in Greene County Tuesday.

Sheriff Clarence A. Stewart told Brown of reports that residents of Kentucky plan to vote in that state by absentee ballot and in Greene County in person.

Brown said that "double voting" for President would be a federal offense which he said carried more severe penalties than violation of Ohio election laws.

Readers' Views on Local School Issues

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD:

For weeks I have wondered how people so interested in the education of the children in rural Fayette County can be at such variance with each other in their attempts to find a solution to the basic educational problems so long prevalent in this area.

On one hand, I note Miami Trace school board members spending countless hours in tireless efforts to convince the voting public that the proposed bond issue which they sponsor, and which was approved by their fact-finding committee, is the answer to the unhappy school situation.

On the other hand, I see a group of rural parents who do not agree with this line of thought — fathers using hours and hours that might have been utilized in making a living; mothers helping when they could be of service, silently praying when actions seemed futile — all groping for "The Answer", talking and searching for "Facts", —sometimes little known facts that most of us are too busy or too lazy to look for—and above all, hoping! I have spoken with parents with whom I differ on this important issue. They are honest and sincere, and always silently breathe a prayer that we are blessed with a country where we can have a difference of opinion.

We have discussed the values of a larger school unit. One reply was something like, "Don't speak to me of those advantages. All I want for my children is that which is basic and fundamental — I don't want anything else for them." Yet it is for the children of these parents that I write this letter. Though it has been a comparatively short while, they have forgotten that the things which might have been considered "frills" for those of us who are now parents, are absolutely essential to our children. They do not realize that even the basic fundamentals of high school are taught on a wider, more intelligent scope in the larger, unified and cooperating school systems, thereby guaranteeing that even the bare essentials of education will be far more useful to our children.

One parent whom I love and admire said "The question in my mind is whether we want it to be a country school". And it is for her grandchildren that I write this letter. She had completely forgotten that a school of 400 or 500 pupils, numerically removes it from the "Little Red School House" era — So we must remove it from that era in administrative procedures.

The slogan "Rural School for Rural Living" is not realistic. Far less than 25 per cent of those who would attend this proposed school will live in rural communities. If we equip the other 75 to 85 per cent for "rural living", we will have failed miserably. We have a duty and a moral obligation, yes, a privilege, to see that the children of Fayette County are equipped for "living" — not merely rural living alone. (Do not misunderstand me, I was born and reared on a farm; I love it! And I would be proud if our children chose this profession.) But our children must be taught to live with those beyond the narrow confines of "rural living", or we shall do them a grave injustice. We must NOT vote into existence this heritage of segregated, narrow education for our children. They deserve much more!

Exceptional children have so much at stake in this issue. We need them desperately at future leaders of our county and country. The larger, unified system has facilities for utilizing every capability of these brilliant children, of reaching their full capacity for learning and growing. I am thrilled when I see parents of these children who realize that only through the larger, more diversified school units can we derive benefit from the fine intellect of their children. The Miami Trace bond issue CAN NOT meet these qualifications.

Think, just think what a Junior College would mean to this county! Many of the children who would not have the opportunity of a higher education would benefit by this system. It goes without saying that we raise the educational level of our fine county and benefit us all. A larger system would put us in direct line with this tremendous advantage, as it has been received by Chillicothe and other surrounding large school systems. The Miami Trace bond issue can not meet these qualifications.

Do not be misled by those who feel that the school proposed by the Miami Trace Board would solve our problems. This is not true. A house does not make a home; neither will a new building improve the administrative procedures which are now in operation.

We must look to the future. We know, as do an overwhelming majority with whom we talk, that we need cooperation, not animosity — unity, not segregation — and certainly we need love, not hatred. The present unyielding, biased, uncooperative, and short-sighted bond issue is an injustice to taxpayers and to the future of the children of Fayette County.

Please vote NO on the Miami Trace Bond Issue.

MISSIE WHITE
Route 3

I want to tell you how much I enjoyed reading your column Oct. 31. I think it is so good that a person has the courage to write their opinion of the Miami Trace Bond Issue without completely condemning it.

I have read so many letters in your column, going in only one direction. It was so different to read a letter from a TRUE rural parent. I wish everyone who has the Wednesday edition of the Record-Herald would read Mr. Shepard's letter just ONCE again.

Anyone can obtain any information that they so desire concerning the Miami Trace bond issue. They can study these facts and figures, and then as true American parents, make up their own minds. They can exercise their American privilege by going to the polls Tuesday.

Solve the crowded school problem. Give our county children a school to call their own, one they can be proud of — The Miami Trace High School.

MRS. DONALD PALMER
Route 2

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD:
Many persons have called me

asking my opinion on tax levies, bond issues, etc. at the coming election.

I want to say I have not changed my views one whit from what they were two years ago.

I still have no patience with the "hired help" of our school system, or any others who are hired to try to take over and spend the finances of the taxpayers' problems. They just take too much for granted. I have been here a long time — have passed my four score years — and I truthfully can say I never once voted in favor of a tax levy of a bond issue when I didn't pay taxes to raise the money.

I always felt that if people were smart or thrifty enough by their own efforts to obtain a small, or even a large amount, of property, they were entitled to some degree to have a voice in how their income was being spent.

Whenever there are more rooms needed for housing our school children, in heaven's name why can't a plan be worked out where everyone who expects to benefit, shall have the privilege of helping — instead of eternally trying to make a splurge through the other fellow's pocketbook.

We hire people to lead our youth and to teach them education and how to be honest and upright men and women. Too often some of these people we hire, become a little too ambitious regarding their own personal interests.

Personally taxes and levies for the next 25 or more years won't be my headache, but to you citizens who will be facing your rapidly increasing taxes, I say consider well before you say "yes".

Just remember that some of this school system's "hired help" will be elsewhere while you will be left with more tax burdens hard to face. Maybe some who have saved for years to get a small home, may even lose their property while non-taxpayers who profit by the taxes forced on you will little care how you are faring. They've got what they wanted.

Let's practice a little economy. Let's have a little more concern with what we owe to each other, including our taxpayers who are carrying all the burden; also let's try "to do unto others as we would have others do unto us".

Ohio Hog Prices Show Decline

COLUMBUS (AP)—Prices paid for hogs in Ohio last week averaged 65 cents lower at $14.85 per hundred pounds average compared to the previous week's average of $15.50, the state bureau of markets reports.

Monday's price of $14.75 was 25 cents lower than the previous close, and the lowest price paid for hogs since April 17. Tuesday and Wednesday prices remained steady with Monday, reflecting the almost-daily decline in wholesale prices for fresh pork products. Thursday's market was 25 cents higher at $15, while Friday's steady price and close for the week was $15.

Grocer Is Shot In Robbery 'Joke'

CLEVELAND (AP)—An East Side grocery proprietor was in critical condition in a hospital today as the result of a robbery attempt he thought was a joke.

George Hanna, 40, said he thought he was being kidded when a masked youth, accompanied by two others, entered the store and said, "This is a holdup."

As Hanna started to walk behind the counter the youth fired one shot from a revolver. It struck Hanna in the abdomen. The three youths, 16 to 18, ran away.

Readers' Views on Local School Issues

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD:

For weeks I have wondered how people so interested in the education of the children in rural Fayette County can be at such variance with each other in their attempts to find a solution to the basic educational problems so long prevalent in this area.

On one hand, I note Miami Trace school board members spending countless hours in tireless efforts to convince the voting public that the proposed bond issue which they sponsor, and which was approved by their fact-finding committee, is the answer to the unhappy school situation.

On the other hand, I see a group of rural parents who do not agree with this line of thought — fathers using hours and hours that might have been utilized in making a living; mothers helping when they could be of service, silently praying when actions seemed futile — all groping for "The Answer" — talking and searching for "Facts" — sometimes little known facts that most of us are too busy or too lazy to look for — and above all, hoping! I have spoken with parents with whom I differ on this important issue. They are honest and sincere, and I always silently breathe a prayer that we are blessed with a country where we can have a difference of opinion.

We have discussed the values of a larger school unit. One reply was something like, "Don't speak to me of those advantages. All I want for my children is that which is basic and fundamental — I don't want anything else for them." Yet it is for the children of these parents that I write this letter. Though it has been a comparatively short while, they have forgotten that the things which might have been considered "frills" for those of us who are now parents, are absolutely essential to our children. They do not realize that even the basic fundamentals of high school are taught on a wider, more intelligent scope in the larger, unified and cooperating school systems, thereby guaranteeing that even the bare essentials of education will be far more useful to our children.

One parent whom I love and admire said "The question in my mind is whether we want it to be a country school." And it is for her grandchildren that I write this letter. She had completely forgotten that a school of 400 or 500 pupils, numerically removes it from the "Little Red School House" era — So we must remove it from that era in administrative procedures.

The slogan "Rural School for Rural Living" is not realistic. Far less than 25 per cent of those who would attend this proposed school will live in rural communities. If we equip the other 75 to 85 per cent for "rural living", we will have failed miserably. We have a duty and a moral obligation, yes, a privilege, to see that the children of Fayette County are equipped for "living" — not merely rural living alone. (Do not misunderstand me, I was born and reared on a farm; I love it! And I would be proud if our children chose this profession.) But our children must be taught to live with those beyond the narrow confines of "rural living", or we shall do them a grave injustice. We must NOT vote into existence this heritage of segregated, narrow education for our children. They deserve much more!

Exceptional children have so much at stake in this issue. We need them desperately as future leaders of our county and country. The larger, unified system has facilities for utilizing every capability of these brilliant children, of reaching their full capacity for learning and growing. I am thrilled when I see parents of these children who realize that only through the larger, more diversified school units can we derive benefit from the fine intellect of their children. The Miami Trace bond issue CAN NOT meet these qualifications.

Think, just think what a Junior College would mean to this county. Many of the children who would not have the opportunity of a higher education would benefit by this system. It goes without saying that we raise the educational level of our fine county and benefit us all. A larger system would put us in direct line with this tremendous advantage, as it has been received by Chillicothe and other surrounding large school systems. The Miami Trace bond issue can not meet these qualifications.

Do not be misled by those who feel that the school proposed by the Miami Trace Board would solve our problems. This is not true. A house does not make a home; neither will a new building improve the administrative procedures which are now in operation.

We must look to the future. We know, as do an overwhelming majority with whom we talk, that we need cooperation, not animosity — unity, not segregation — and certainly we need love, not hatred. The present unyielding, biased, uncooperative, and short-sighted bond issue is an injustice to taxpayers and to the future of the children of Fayette County.

Please vote NO on the Miami Trace Bond Issue.

I want to tell you how much I enjoyed reading your column Oct. 31. I think it is so good that a person has the courage to write their opinion of the Miami Trace Bond Issue without completely condemning it.

I have read so many letters in your column, going in only one direction. It was so different to read a letter from a TRUE rural parent. I wish everyone who has the Wednesday edition of the Record-Herald would read Mr. Shepard's letter just ONCE again.

Anyone can obtain any information that they so desire concerning the Miami Trace bond issue. They can study these facts and figures, and then as true American parents, make up their own minds. They can exercise their American privilege by going to the polls Tuesday.

Solve the crowded school problem. Give our county children a school to call their own, one they can be proud of — The Miami Trace High School.

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD:
Many persons have called me

asking my opinion on tax levies, bond issues, etc. at the coming election.

I want to say I have not changed my views one whit from what they were two years ago.

I still have no patience with the "hired help" of our school system, or any others who are hired to take over and spend the finances of the taxpayers without appreciating our taxpayers' problems. They just take too much for granted. I have been here a long time — have passed my four score years — and I truthfully can say I never once voted in favor of a tax levy of a bond issue when I didn't pay taxes to raise the money.

I always felt that if people were smart or thrifty enough by their own efforts to obtain a small, or even a large amount, of property, they were entitled to some degree to have a voice in how their income was being spent.

Whenever there are more rooms needed for housing our school children, in heaven's name why can't a plan be worked out where everyone who expects to benefit, shall have the privilege of helping — instead of eternally trying to make a splurge through the other fellow's pocketbook.

We hire people to lead our youth and to teach them education and how to be honest and upright men and women. Too often some of these people we hire, become a little too ambitious regarding their own personal interests.

Personally taxes and levies for the next 25 or more years won't be my headache, but to you citizens who will be facing your rapidly increasing taxes, I say consider well before you say "yes".

Just remember that some of this school system's "hired help" will be elsewhere while you will be left with more tax burdens hard to face. Maybe some who have saved for years to get a small home, may even lose their property while non-taxpayers who profit by the taxes forced on you will little care how you are faring. They've got what they wanted.

Let's practice a little economy. Let's have a little more concern with what we owe to each other, including our taxpayers who are carrying all the burden; also let's try "to do unto others as we would have others do unto us".

Election Days Not always the Same as Now

As election day, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, comes to us this year, many voters begin to wonder if they are as well informed on the issues of the day as they should be.

Those who want to do their balloting right make an honest effort to obtain more information on those things which they feel they have not given sufficient thought to pass satisfactory judgment.

There are others who are unwilling to make this effort and they oftentimes are the ones who could be responsible for an election result not always for the best interests of the people.

The importance of exercising a citizen's privilege to vote cannot be overestimated and is deserving of far more study on issues involved than a great many people are willing to give.

On presidential election day usually the nation votes for 435 representatives in Congress and 32 senators in the U. S. Congress, this number augmented somewhat in some years by votes to fill vacancies. This vote is just as important as is the vote for president and vice-president.

The national election did not always fall upon the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

Until 1872 each state fixed its own day for voting for Congress. Often it was not the same as presidential election day, set in 1845.

Between those dates, the "October States"—Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana—voted early for their congressional representatives. Their elections were watched as important straws in the wind.

Even today Maine, by special exception and an early winter, votes in September for all offices except presidential electors.

Senatorial elections did not exist until the 17th Amendment became law in 1913. Previously, senators were elected by the state legislatures.

Why does election day fall in November? "Harvesting is over then, and winter has not yet made the roads impassable," said Alexander Duncan, Whig Representative from Ohio, who wrote the presidential election-day law in 1845.

By a previous law, the date for presidential elections had to be set not more than 34 days before the first Wednesday in December, when the electoral college met—and still meets—every four years. Congress, however, hoped to make it at least 30 days ahead.

It couldn't be the first of November, for businessmen make out accounts on the first. It couldn't fall on Sunday, for unlike Europeans, Americans feel the Sabbath is no day for voting. Monday would leave too little time for traveling to the polls.

Thus the present election day was chosen. It never falls on the first, nor later than November 8. By giving America a national polling day, it eliminated such scandals as "pipe-laying," the practice of sending political gangs across state lines to vote more than once on different election days.

Voting as a citizen's privilege goes back to the ancient Greek city-states. On serious matters such as the exile of a citizen, the Greeks cast pebbles or bits of pottery into urns—the first secret ballots—2,400 years ago.

Do You Glorify Your Wife?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (U.S.)—What are you doing to glorify your wife?

European men often say American men foolishly spoil their ladies, and that husbands here virtually practice wife worship.

This talk infuriates American wives. Not because it's true (they only wish it were) but because it isn't. They feel that if any husbands are practicing wife worship in this country it must be a secret vice. They see no public signs of it.

The truth is the complaint the average wife makes most often about her husband, is, "He's too inattentive. He takes me for granted, just as he does the furniture. Nobody in America really appreciates what it means to be a housewife except another housewife."

"The trouble with a husband is that he thinks the courtship ends with the honeymoon," a veteran wife lamented, adding: "Romance? A husband's idea of being romantic is to send his wife a get-well card on Valentine's Day."

Well, ladies, that may have been true before. But now husbands are getting more thoughtful. They're not only praising their hausfraus in public. They're doing it in print and paying for the privilege!

Last month in Miami Harry Johnson surprised his wife on their anniversary with a 12-by-25-foot billboard poster. It showed him kneeling in humble adoration "To a wonderful wife who has borne with me for 20 years."

Recently Mrs. Carl W. Trantham of Springfield, Mo., while scanning the classified ads of her newspaper, was startled to find there a public announcement, paid for by husband, telling what a great girl she was.

The ad quoted the Biblical proverb, "Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing."

In praising a wife, do you pay to advertise? Trantham, a railroad employe, found it sure paid off in his case.

Mrs. Trantham was more pleased by her husband's public proclamation than she was with the silver anniversary gifts he gave her—a silver bracelet and earrings, silver pen, and a chrome silver food mixer. Even strangers called up to congratulate her.

"I received many compliments myself," Trantham reported later.

As a matter of fact other husbands across the country are putting similar ads in their newspapers. When I reported this trend to my wife, Frances, she said:

"Some women have all the luck."

"Don't worry, I've got even bigger plans for you," I told her. "On our golden anniversary I am going to rent an airplane and have 'skywrite' in letters a mile high over Manhattan: 'To Frances, a golden girl.'"

"If I live that long—and if you remember the date," said Frances, unimpressed.

"Silly," I told her. "That's one date I could never forget."

A little later Frances looked up from the sock she was darning and asked casually:

"Are you doing anything next Tuesday night?"

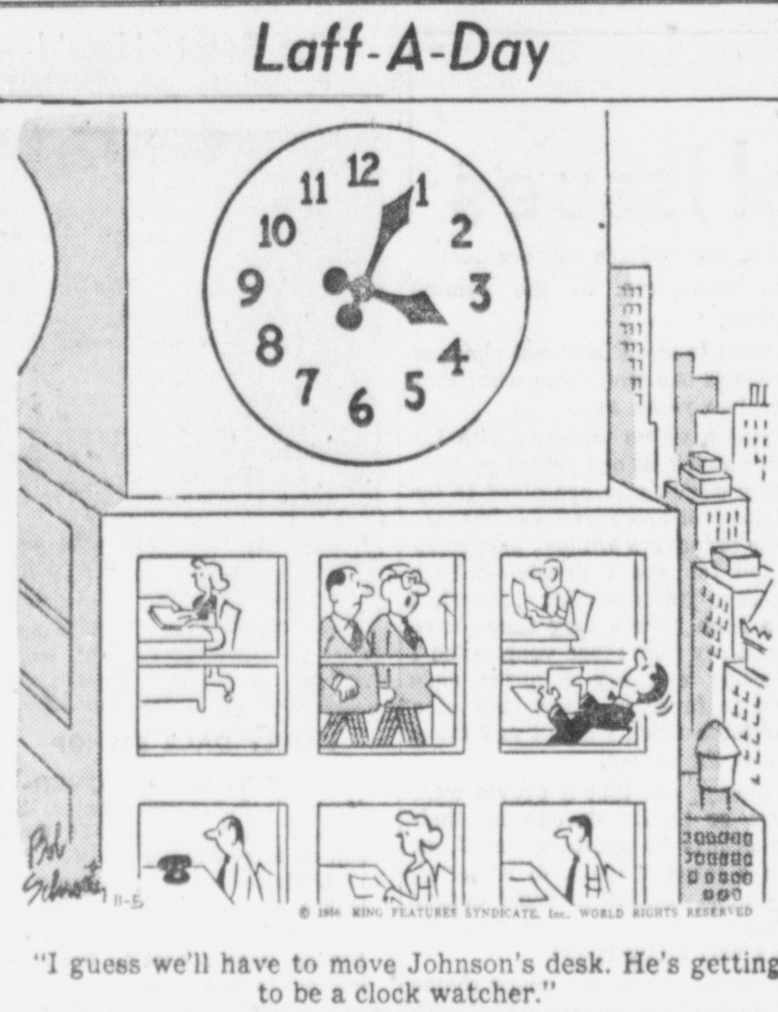

"Yeah, watching the election returns."

"But you don't have anything special planned?"

"No, why?"

"Oh, I sort of thought I'd like to celebrate," said Frances. "It happens to be my 19th wedding anniversary. When's yours?"

Even with two people in it a room sometimes can get awfully quiet, can't it?

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. RUNDESEN

Want to be able to read more easily and at the same time guard against eyestrain? Then read this:

Recent tests have proved that the angle at which you hold the reading matter has considerable effect upon both the visibility of the words and the speed at which you read. The size of type also is an important factor.

Specific Distance

Some 300 university sophomores took part in the tests. A headrest kept their eyes a specific distance from the reading copy.

It was proved conclusively that these students could read more quickly when the copy was held at a 45 degree angle. Laying the reading matter flat on a table greatly reduced the speed and ease with which they read.

The students also found that it was much easier to read 10-point type than the smaller 8-point type.

Many newspapers, incidentally, are now using type larger than 8 point. They are using more white space around the type which also makes for easier reading.

If you have normal sight, I think you'll find it best to hold this newspaper or whatever else you may read about 17 inches from your eyes.

Book Held at Angle For Easier Reading

If you can't read well at this distance, I suggest you have an eye examination.

A good rule to follow when reading is to hold the copy on a 45-degree angle from the vertical and just under a foot and a half from your eyes.

If you wear bifocals, here's another tip: Don't tilt your head forward when reading. Instead, lower your eyes. And when reading a newspaper, fold it in half and hold it low.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A. G.: I had a baby two years ago and breast-fed her for eight months. However, my breasts will not dry up. What would you suggest that I do?

Answer: It would be well for you to have a complete physical examination to determine whether there is some hormone difficulty causing the breasts to discharge.

In such cases, the cause often is not found and the discharge usually stops by itself if given time.

Swiss Position on Money

By George Sokolsky

I came across a very interesting pamphlet, entitled "SEC and foreign capital," issued by De Pontet & Co., Inc., which states the Swiss position regarding anonymous bank accounts better than I had ever seen it. Any person can make a deposit in a Swiss bank, with only one officer of the bank knowing who the true owner of the account is. To that officer the individual must disclose his name, address, occupation, nationality and "whether all correspondence pertaining to his account should be forwarded to his address or kept in his file with the bank where he will check it whenever he comes to the bank."

Further, it says in this pamphlet:

"...In case he wishes the correspondence to be sent to his home address, the directors will take care that letters are not written to him on the bank's official letterhead paper, but on a plain sheet and addressed only to the number of the account; such letters are forwarded in a neutral envelope so that no one suspects they are from a bank. If the client lives in a foreign country, a special employee mails the letters in the client's country so as to avoid any suspicion that the client is in correspondence with Switzerland."

What kind of money is this that requires so much secrecy? If it is American money, what is it doing in Switzerland, and why do the accounts have to be surrounded with all this hocus-focus? The answer must be that this money has gone underground.

When such money comes to the United States, the true owner is generally not known or knowable, because no Swiss bank will identify the owner of an account. Now let me quote:

"On most of these accounts Swiss bank executives have discretionary power and invest in Switzerland as well as abroad, mainly for long-term capital gain. ... There is a reciprocal tax agreement between Switzerland and the United States whereby a Swiss holder of U. S. bonds pays only 5 per cent withholding tax and 15 per cent on U. S. stocks. However, the 30 per cent withholding tax on dividend income applies to number accounts when the client is not a resident of Switzerland. ... And a smart man can arrange for a nominee who does live in Switzerland."

The three Swiss banks that specialize in American investments are the Union Bank of Switzerland, Credit Suisse and the Swiss Bank Corp.

Up to now our government has never been able to break through the Swiss barrier of secrecy. But it is possible for a congressional committee to delve into the European investment in American defense industries and no person so investing can claim secrecy under any of our laws. If the money is his, he undoubtedly can establish the fact: if he is the representative of other people's money, it is his responsibility to know who the other people are. It would be possible for Congress to pass an act requiring the true owners of the shares of a company engaged in defense activities to be registered, excluding a bank unless the bank officials certify that the bank is the true and rightful owner of the money.

Perhaps the heart of the difference between the American and European attitude is in this paragraph:

"I am worth $250,000 and I earn $60,000 a year! Such a statement would not be possible from any European; no one there tells of one's earnings or wealth. The American does not hesitate to speak publicly about his worth and earnings. Perhaps this basic difference in approach is the origin of the American misunderstanding of bank secrecy."

Of course, we pay our taxes, as much as we hate them and as much as we all think we cheat a little. Actually, it is astonishing how little Americans do cheat. In fact, if anything the government collections are too tough due to confusions in the law. The European, except the British, does not regard it as dishonest not to pay taxes. Also there have been so many wars and revolutions in Europe that the man of means has to use his head to keep what he has.

That is why this small country, Switzerland, with less than 5,000,000 population has over 400 banks, with 3,000 branches, with a capital of $700,000,000 and deposits of over seven billion dollars. "This is more than the yearly gross national product of Switzerland, which amounts to $5 billion dollars."

(Copyright 1954 King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Canadian police authorities say that a person on probation costs taxpayers about $80 a year, but a prisoner in jail costs about $3,000 a year.

Election Days Not always the Same as Now

As election day, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, comes to us this year, many voters begin to wonder if they are as well informed on the issues of the day as they should be.

Those who want to do their balloting right make an honest effort to obtain more information on those things which they feel they have not given sufficient thought to pass satisfactory judgment.

There are others who are unwilling to make this effort and they oftentimes are the ones who could be responsible for an election result not always for the best interests of the people.

The importance of exercising a citizen's privilege to vote cannot be overestimated and is deserving of far more study on issues involved than a great many people are willing to give.

On presidential election day usually the nation votes for 435 representatives in Congress and 32 senators in the U. S. Congress, this number augmented somewhat in some years by votes to fill vacancies. This vote is just as important as is the vote for president and vice-president.

The national election did not always fall upon the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

Until 1872 each state fixed its own day for voting for Congress. Often it was not the same as presidential election day, set in 1845.

Between those dates, the "October States"—Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana—voted early for their congressional representatives. Their elections were watched as important straws in the wind.

Even today Maine, by special exception and an early winter, votes in September for all offices except presidential electors.

Senatorial elections did not exist until the 17th Amendment became law in 1913. Previously, senators were elected by the state legislatures.

Why does election day fall in November? "Harvesting is over then, and winter has not yet made the roads impassable," said Alexander Duncan, Whig Representative from Ohio, who wrote the presidential election-day law in 1845.

By a previous law, the date for presidential elections had to be set not more than 34 days before the first Wednesday in December, when the electoral college met—and still meets—every four years. Congress, however, hoped to make it at least 30 days ahead.

It couldn't be the first of November, for businessmen make out accounts on the first. It couldn't fall on Sunday, for unlike Europeans, Americans feel the Sabbath is no day for voting. Monday would leave too little time for traveling to the polls.

Thus the present election day was chosen. It never falls on the first, nor later than November 8. By giving America a national polling day, it eliminated such scandals as "pipe-laying," the practice of sending political gangs across state lines to vote more than once on different election days.

Voting as a citizen's privilege goes back to the ancient Greek city-states. On serious matters such as the exile of a citizen, the Greeks cast pebbles or bits of pottery into urns—the first secret ballots—2,400 years ago.

Do You Glorify Your Wife?

NEW YORK (A)—What are you doing to glorify your wife?

European men often say American men foolishly spoil their ladies, and that husbands here virtually practice wife worship.

This talk infuriates American wives. Not because it's true (they only wish it were) but because it isn't. They feel that if any husbands are practicing wife worship in this country it must be a secret vice. They see no public signs of it.

The truth is the complaint the average wife makes most often about her husband, is, "He's too inattentive. He takes me for granted, just as he does the furniture. Nobody in America really appreciates what it means to be a housewife except another housewife."

"The trouble with a husband is that he thinks the cupboard is empty with the honeymoon," a veteran wife lamented, adding: "Romance? A husband's idea of being romantic is to send his wife a get-well card on Valentine's Day."

Well, ladies, that may have been true before. But now husbands are getting more thoughtful. They're not only praising their hausfraus in public. They're doing it in print and paying for the privilege!

Last month in Miami Harry Jobson surprised his wife on their anniversary with a 12-by-25-foot billboard poster. It showed him kneeling in humble adoration "To a wonderful wife who has borne with me for 20 years."

Recently Mrs. Car' W. Trantham of Springfield, Mo., while scanning the classified ads of her newspaper, was startled to find there a public announcement, paid for by husband, telling what a great gal she was.

The ad quoted the Biblical proverb, "Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing."

In praising a wife, do you pay to advertise? Trantham, a railroad employee, found it sure paid off in his case.

Mrs. Trantham was more pleased by her husband's public proclamation than she was with the silver anniversary gifts he gave her—a silver bracelet and earrings, silver pen, and a chrome silver food mixer. Even strangers called up to congratulate her.

"I received many compliments myself," Trantham reported later.

As a matter of fact other husbands across the country are putting similar ads in their newspapers. When I reported this trend to my wife, Frances, she said:

"Some women have all the luck."

"Don't worry, I've got even bigger plans for you," I told her. "On our golden anniversary I am going to rent an airplane and have 'skywrite' in letters a mile high over Manhattan: 'To Frances, a golden girl.'"

"If I live that long—and if you remember the date," said Frances, unimpressed.

"Silly," I told her. "That's one date I could never forget."

A little later Frances looked up from the sock she was darning and asked casually:

"Are you doing anything next Tuesday night?"

"Yeah, watching the election returns."

"But you don't have anything special planned?"

"No, why?"

"Oh, I sort of thought I'd like to celebrate," said Frances. "It happens to be my 19th wedding anniversary. When's yours?"

Even with two people in a room sometimes can get awfully quiet, can't it?

Swiss Position on Money

I came across a very interesting pamphlet, entitled "SEC and foreign capital," issued by De Pontet & Co., Inc., which states the Swiss position regarding anonymous bank accounts better than I had ever seen it. Any person can make a deposit in a Swiss bank, with only one officer of the bank knowing who the true owner of the account is. To that officer the individual must disclose his name, address, occupation, nationality and "whether all correspondence pertaining to his account should be forwarded to his address or kept in his file with the bank where he will check it whenever he comes to the bank."

Further, it says in this pamphlet:

"...In case he wishes the correspondence to be sent to his home address, the directors will take care that letters are not written to him on the bank's official letterhead paper, but on a plain sheet and addressed only to the number of the account: such letters are forwarded in a neutral envelope so that no one suspects they are from a bank. If the client lives in a foreign country, a special employee mails the letters in the client's country so as to avoid any suspicion that the client is in correspondence with Switzerland."

What kind of money is this that requires so much secrecy? If it is American money, what is it doing in Switzerland, and why do the accounts have to be surrounded with all this hocus-focus? The answer must be that this money has gone underground.

When such money comes to the United States, the true owner is generally not known or knowable, because no Swiss bank will identify the owner of an account. Now let me quote:

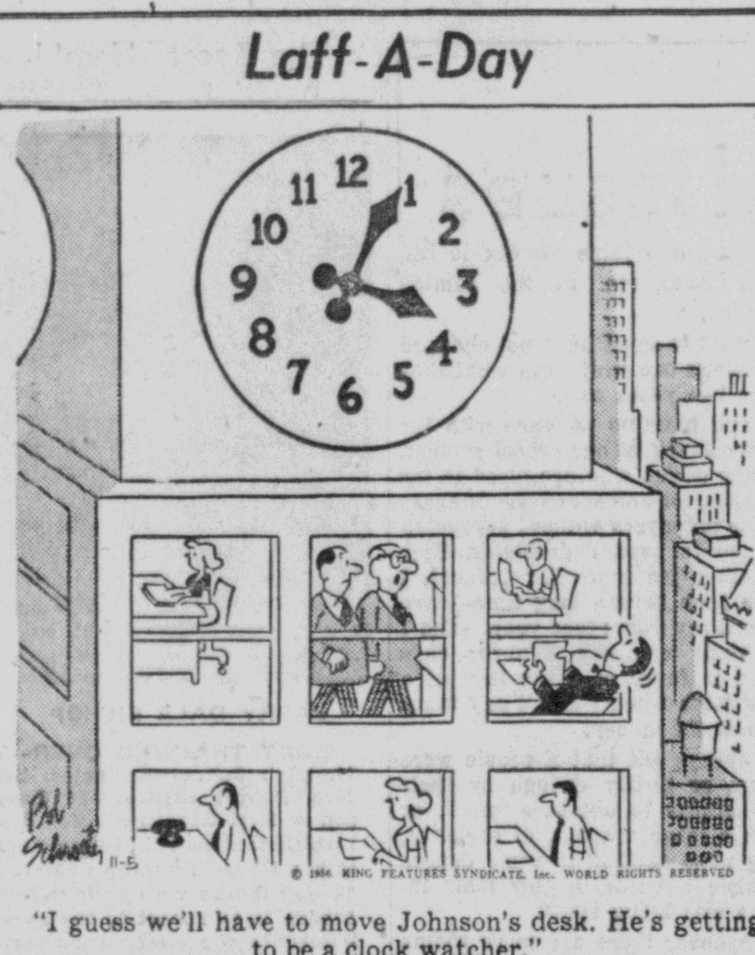

"On most of these accounts Swiss bank executives have discretionary power and invest in Switzerland as well as abroad, mainly for long-term capital gain. ... There is a reciprocal tax agreement between Switzerland and the United States whereby a Swiss holder of U. S. bonds pays only 5 per cent withholding tax and 15 per cent on U. S. stocks. However, the 30 per cent withholding tax on dividend income applies to number accounts when the client is not a resident of Switzerland. ... And a smart man can arrange for a nominee who does live in Switzerland."

The three Swiss banks that specialize in American investments are the Union Bank of Switzerland, Credit Suisse and the Swiss Bank Corp.

Up to now our government has never been able to break through the Swiss barrier of secrecy. But it is possible for a congressional committee to delve into the European investment in American defense industries and no person so investing can claim secrecy under any of our laws. If the money is his, he undoubtedly can establish the fact: if he is the representative of other people's money, it is his responsibility to know who the other people are. It would be possible for Congress to pass an act requiring the true owners of the shares of a company engaged in defense activities to be registered, excluding a bank unless the bank officials certify that the bank is the true and rightful owner of the money.

Perhaps the heart of the difference between the American and European attitude is in this paragraph:

"I am worth $250,000 and I earn $60,000 a year! Such a statement would not be possible from any European; no one there tells of one's earnings or wealth. The American does not hesitate

Diet and Health Book Held at Angle For Easier Reading

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Want to be able to read more easily and at the same time guard against eyestrain? Then read this:

Recent tests have proved that the angle at which you hold the reading matter has considerable effect upon both the visibility of the words and the speed at which you read. The size of type also is an important factor.

Specific Distance

Some 300 university sophomores took part in the tests. A headrest kept their eyes a specific distance from the reading copy.

It was proved conclusively that these students could read more quickly when the copy was held at a 45 degree angle. Laying the reading matter flat on a table greatly reduced the speed and ease with which they read.

The students also found that it was much easier to read 10-point type than the smaller 8-point type.

Many newspapers, incidentally, are now using type larger than 8 point. They are using more white space around the type which also makes for easier reading.

If you have normal sight, I think you'll find it best to hold this newspaper or whatever else you may read about 17 inches from your eyes.

If you can't read well at this distance, I suggest you have an eye examination.

A good rule to follow when reading is to hold the copy on a 45-degree angle from the vertical and just under a foot and a half from your eyes.

If you wear bifocals, here's another tip: Don't tilt your head forward when reading. Instead, lower your eyes. And when reading a newspaper, fold it in half and hold it low.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A. G.: I had a baby two years ago and breast-fed her for eight months. However, my breasts will not dry up. What would you suggest that I do?

Answer: It would be well for you to have a complete physical examination to determine whether there is some hormone difficulty causing the breasts to discharge.

In such cases, the cause often is not found and the discharge usually stops by itself if given time.

HAVER'S DRUG STORE

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

Recently I had a very pleasant visit with Howard Allen, at his home on Oakland Ave., where he has been following his physician's advice to "take it easy for a while."

Howard met me with his usual smile and greeting which has been characteristic of him during the nearly half a century I have known him.

Howard organized the Fayette County Automobile Club and has been its executive secretary down through the years.

He is also deeply interested in horses, county history, and the things of yesterday, as well as those of the present.

While I was visiting him he turned over to me a brief note from Lt. Billie Paul, sent to him in March, 1918, from the battlefield in France, with instructions to turn the enclosures over to me for any news value they might have.

So I got the contents, a booklet on censorship, and a brief, carbon copy of a warning from Major Henderson of the Third Battalion, 166th Infantry, to:

"PREPARE FOR BOMBARDMENT"

Then "hell broke loose," to quote from Billie's brief note written to Howard.

Howard had told me more than once that he had the material for me, but was never able to locate it until recently, so we both had a laugh over me getting it 38 years late.

LIGHT FOR ELECTION

Throughout the years the crowds which usually congregate about the Board of Elections office in the basement of the Fayette County Courthouse, have found the area about the south steps of the Courthouse to be very dark.

For the first time they will find the south steps lighted, so that it will be an easy matter to see in reaching the Board of Elections office, as result of action taken recently by the county commissioners. At present the light is a temporary one, but a permanent light with globe is to be erected soon.

YATESVILLE VILLAGE

Yatesville, small village on Route 28, six miles north of Bloomington, now has one store which Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Ford have operated for the past 4½ years after having purchased the business from Austin Frederick, who operated the general store for several years.

The former Coe Store on the opposite side of the road (I mean street) has been closed for several years.

flinger, who, with Edward Durflinger, his son, operated the store for many years before selling to William Minnick, who in turn was the storekeeper for several years.

Tom and his wife had purchased the store property from Mrs. Clara Francis Ford, of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Moats reside in the former Coe store building, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coe live in the former William Gibson cottage back of the building in which the Moats reside.

There are no other homes in the village, and the only other buildings are the Upper Paint Township House, the former Upper Paint School Building, now owned by F. Scott Zimmerman of Washington C. H. and Union Chapel Methodist Church.

Many years ago a blacksmith shop stood on the corner south of the Ford store, and the William Gibson barn and carriage shed was on the opposite side of the road, a letter to the north.

William Gibson used to have a large garden north of his store building, with a row of rhubarb more than 150 feet long. He sold rhubarb to everyone in the community who desired it.

Yatesville was founded by M. L. Yates, but I do not know the year. I do know that I spent my early life in the Yatesville area, and knew Davey Yates, son of the founder.

PART OF KEY MISSING

When the Fayette County Jail was erected in 1884, the cupola bore an upright shaft supporting a weather vane, and the vane was nothing more or less than a large hollow metal key, symbolic of the prison and locked doors for the evil doer.

Many years ago a storm or bolt of lightning tore away most of the key, leaving only the loop and part of the stem, so that ever since that time the half key has failed to function as a weather vane.

As you may know, there are five separate sections of the average key. The bow, or loop, stem, collar, pin and bit or web.

Part of the stem, collar, pin and bit or web of the vane key are missing.

EBER POST OFFICE

Eber Post Office was one of the many village post offices in Fayette County which was abandoned years ago when rural delivery wiped out the necessity of maintaining the small offices.

Residents of the Eber Community recall when M. C. Ortman, who resides at 227 N. Main St., operated a grocery and notions store in the village, two miles northwest of Washington C. H. and was postmaster. Elias Valentine, who lived in the now abandoned house immediately east of Corwin Carr's home in Eber, carried the mail daily except Sunday, from Eber to the Washington C. H. post office, and took Eber mail back to the post office there.

Valentine invariably used a horse and buckboard in hauling the mail to and from Washington and Miss Clara Zimmerman is one of those who recall seeing him when she was a very small girl.

M. C. Ortman was postmaster at Eber from 1894 until 1909 when he sold the store to Milton Sollars and the post office went with the store. At the death of Mr. Sollars a few years ago the village lost its only store.

STENGEL FOR JUDGE

George W. (Casey) Stengel, candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, in discussing the "judicial mind," says it is somewhat like a wag's definition of the "legal mind," viz., "if you think of one thing attached to another thing without thinking of the thing to which it is attached, then you have what we call a legal mind."

In a more serious tone, Stengel says a judicial mind is merely the mind of a learned lawyer who will astutely decide each case according to the law of the land without regard to the racial, religious, political, economic or social status of the litigants or their attorneys.

Average Businessman Said Poor in Both Dress, Speech

HOLLYWOOD — The average American businessman is badly dressed, poorly spoken and unmannered, claims Adolphe Menjou, who is willing to help improve the situation.

Hollywood was surprised to see Menjou's suave pan peering out from a newspaper ad for something called Executives Unlimited, schools for men. The actor was listed as a trainer in "wardrobing, grooming, social comportment, physical fitness."

It turned out that Menjou was enlisted for the new school by Marge Gordikov, operator of a school for models in Pasadena. The idea is to train the captains and lieutenants of industry so they can improve their rank.

"This sort of training is sorely needed," said Menjou. "Why, just recently I returned from the East where I met some of the most successful men in America. At one dinner there were only millionaires; I was the only bum in the joint. But only one of the men was what I would call well groomed."

Menjou identified some breaches of good grooming: Wearing tan shoes with a blue suit ("makes you look like a Capone gangster"); going hatless on all occasions ("a hat is necessary for the well dressed men"); wearing sport clothes to work ("not acceptable under most conditions").

The actor bristled at the suggestion the double-breasted suit he was wearing might be obsolete. "There are only two kinds of suits—single and double breasted; there is no such thing as a triple breasted suit," he said in a display of Menjou logic, adding, "Who sets the style? I do!"

As for social deportment, he cited these horrible examples:

1. A young executive who started smoking a pipe at a formal dinner party ("put out that stinking incinerator," Menjou ordered); 2. Another who cleaned his nails at a breakfast political meeting.

"Most businessmen don't know how to speak, either," he declared. "They pronounce new as noo instead of new. They say con-

Who says dream cars never come true?

Dynamite from Detroit

Coming! America's first production dream car—it will influence the shape of cars for years to come.

The old Detroit rule was to introduce new features gradually, to make little changes each year. Sometimes a new grille, an engine improvement, or new colors and trim.

We broke that rule. In fact, we broke all the rules. This is dynamite!

For you are not the only one who has dreamed of a totally modern car, a car that has everything you find at automobile shows, in illustrations, and in custom-built experimental cars.

Detroit has had that dream, too. And that's why the 1957 Mercury is the car that has honestly excited the most car-jaded, the most sophisticated of Detroit's automotive experts.

When you see the new 1957 Mercury, you'll see America's first full-production dream car—a car that will influence the shape of cars for years to come.

You'll see a dream car you can own and drive—a car that has far more than startling years-ahead beauty.

THE BIG M for '57 boasts dream-car features never before found outside a designer's dream-book: a Keyboard Control that makes ordinary push-button driving old-fashioned; an exclusive Floating Ride with a revolutionary new cushioning action you have to feel to believe. There are Mercury "firsts" everywhere you look. A Power-Booster Engine Fan in the Montclair series that saves horsepower other cars waste. And many more Mercury exclusives.

You'll see THE BIG M—the new Mercury for 1957—soon. You'll see it. You'll drive it. The first dream car that can be yours. The dynamite is on its way from Detroit to your dealer's—now!

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY
Recently I had a very pleasant visit with Howard Allen, at his home on Oakland Ave., where he has been following his physician's advice to "take it easy for a while."

Howard met me with his usual smile and greeting which has been characteristic of him during the nearly half a century I have known him.

Howard organized the Fayette County Automobile Club and has been its executive secretary down through the years.

He is also deeply interested in horses, county history, and the things of yesterday, as well as those of the present.

While I was visiting him he turned over to me a brief note from Lt. Billie Paul, sent to him in March, 1918, from the battlefield in France, with instructions to turn the enclosures over to me for any news value they might have.

So I got the contents, a booklet on censorship, and a brief, carbon copy of a warning from Major Henderson of the Third Battalion, 166th Infantry, to:

"PREPARE FOR BOMBARDMENT"

Then "hell broke loose," to quote from Billie's brief note written to Howard.

Howard had told me more than once that he had the material for me, but was never able to locate it until recently, so we both had a laugh over me getting it 38 years late.

LIGHT FOR ELECTION

Throughout the years the crowds which usually congregate about the Board of Elections office in the basement of the Fayette County Courthouse, have found the area about the south steps of the Courthouse to be very dark.

For the first time they will find the south steps lighted, so that it will be an easy matter to see in reaching the Board of Elections office, as result of action taken recently by the county commissioners. At present the light is a temporary one, but a permanent light with globe is to be erected soon.

YATESVILLE VILLAGE

Yatesville, small village on Route 38, six miles north of Bloomingburg, now has one store which Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Ford have operated for the past 4 1/2 years after having purchased the business from Austin Frederick, who operated the general store for several years.

The former Coe Store on the opposite side of the road (I mean street) has been closed for several years.

Tom and his wife live in the apartments in the rear of the store, which was built by V. M. Durflinger, who, with Edward Durflinger, his son, operated the store for many years before selling to William Minnick, who in turn was the storekeeper for several years.

Tom and his wife had purchased the store property from Mrs. Clara Francis Ford, of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Moats reside in the former Coe store building, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coe live in the former William Gibson cottage back of the building in which the Moats reside.

There are no other homes in the village, and the only other buildings are the Upper Paint Township House, the former Upper Paint School Building, now owned by F. Scott Zimmerman of Washington C. H. and Union Chapel Methodist Church.

Many years ago a blacksmith shop stood on the corner south of the Ford store, and the William Gibson barn and carriage shed was on the opposite side of the road, a letter to the north.

William Gibson used to have a large garden north of his store building, with a row of rhubarb more than 150 feet long. He sold rhubarb to everyone in the community who desired it.

Yatesville was founded by M. L. Yates, but I do not know the year. I do know that I spent my early life in the Yatesville area, and knew Davey Yates, son of the founder.

PART OF KEY MISSING

When the Fayette County Jail was erected in 1884, the cupola bore an upright shaft supporting a weather vane, and the vane was nothing more or less than a large hollow metal key, symbolic of the prison and locked doors for the evil deer.

Many years ago a storm or bolt of lightning tore away most of the key, leaving only the loop and part of the stem, so that ever since that time the half key has failed to function as a weather vane.

As you may know, there are five separate sections of the average key. The bow, or loop, stem, collar, pin and bit or webb.

Part of the stem, collar, pin and bit or webb of the vane key are missing.

EBER POST OFFICE

Eber Post Office was one of the many village post offices in Fayette County which was abandoned years ago when rural delivery wiped out the necessity of maintaining the small offices.

Residents of the Eber Community recall when M. C. Ortman, who resides at 227 N. Main St., operated a grocery and notions store in the village, two miles northwest of Washington C. H. and was postmaster. Elias Valentine, who lived in the now abandoned house immediately east of Corwin Carr's home in Eber, carried the mail daily except Sunday, from Eber to the Washington C. H. post office, and took Eber mail back to the post office there.

Valentine invariably used a horse and buckboard in hauling the mail to and from Washington and Miss Clara Zimmerman is one of those who recall seeing him when she was a very small girl.

M. C. Ortman was postmaster at Eber from 1894 until 1909 when he sold the store to Milton Sollars and the post office went with the store. At the death of Mr. Sollars a few years ago the village lost its only store.

STENGEL FOR JUDGE

George W. (Casey) Stengel, candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, in discussing the "judicial mind," says it is somewhat like a wag's definition of the "legal mind," viz., "if you think of one thing attached to another thing without thinking of the thing to which it is attached, then you have what we call a legal mind." In a more serious tone, Stengel says a judicial mind is merely the mind of a learned lawyer who will astutely decide each case according to the law of the land without regard to the racial, religious, political, economic or social status of the litigants or their attorneys.

Average Businessman Said Poor in Both Dress, Speech

HOLLYWOOD — The average American businessman is badly dressed, poorly spoken and unmannered, claims Adolphe Menjou, who is willing to help improve the situation.

Hollywood was surprised to see Menjou's suave pan peering out from a newspaper ad for something called Executives Unlimited, schools for men. The actor was listed as a trainer in "wardrobing, grooming, social comportment, physical fitness."

It turned out that Menjou was enlisted for the new school by Marge Gordikov, operator of a school for models in Pasadena. The idea is to train the captains and lieutenants of industry so they can improve their rank.

"This sort of training is sorely needed," said Menjou. "Why, just recently I returned from the East where I met some of the most successful men in America. At one dinner there were only millionaires; I was the only bum in the joint. But only one of the men was what I would call well groomed."

Menjou identified some breaches of good grooming: Wearing tan shoes with a blue suit ("makes you look like a Capone gangster"); going hatless on all occasions ("a hat is necessary for the well dressed men"); wearing sport clothes to work ("not acceptable under most conditions").

The actor bristled at the suggestion the double-breasted suit he was wearing might be obsolete. "There are only two kinds of suits—single and double breasted; there is no such thing as a triple breasted suit," he said in a display of Menjou logic, adding, "Who sets the style? I do!"

As for social deportment, he cited these horrible examples:

1. A young executive who started smoking a pipe at a formal dinner party ("put out that stinking incinerator," Menjou ordered);
2. Another who cleaned his nails at a breakfast political meeting.

"Most businessmen don't know how to speak, either," he declared. "They pronounce new as noo instead of new. They say con-

Who says dream cars never come true?

Dynamite from Detroit

Coming! America's first production dream car—it will influence the shape of cars for years to come.

The old Detroit rule was to introduce new features gradually, to make little changes each year. Sometimes a new grille, an engine improvement, or new colors and trim.

We broke that rule. In fact, we broke all the rules. This is dynamite!

For you are not the only one who has dreamed of a totally modern car, a car that has everything you find at automobile shows, in illustrations, and in custom-built experimental cars.

Detroit has had that dream, too. And that's why the 1957 Mercury is the car that has honestly excited the most car-jaded, the most sophisticated of Detroit's automotive experts.

When you see the new 1957 Mercury, you'll see America's first full-production dream car—a car that will influence the shape of cars for years to come.

You'll see a dream car you can own and drive—a car that has far more than startling years-ahead beauty.

THE BIG M for '57 boasts dream-car features never before found outside a designer's dream-book: a Keyboard Control that makes ordinary push-button driving old-fashioned; an exclusive Floating Ride with a revolutionary new cushioning action you have to feel to believe. There are Mercury "firsts" everywhere you look. A Power-Booster Engine Fan in the Montclair series that saves horsepower other cars waste. And many more Mercury exclusives.

You'll see THE BIG M—the new Mercury for 1957—soon. You'll see it. You'll drive it. The first dream car that can be yours. The dynamite is on its way from Detroit to your dealer's—now!

Beautiful Morning Wedding Unites Couple In Marriage

MRS. JAMES LEE EBERST

White chrysanthemums and gladioli in cathedral vases and altars of white button pom poms decorated St. Colman's Church on Saturday for the wedding at eleven o'clock in the morning, when Miss Nancy Kimmey, daughter of Mrs. Meyers Kimmey and the late Mr. Kimmey became the bride of Mr. Lee James Eberst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Eberst, 612 Fairwood Ave., Columbus. The Rev. Father Richard J. Connelly officiated at the Nuptial High Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Kenneth Carr of Cincinnati. Her gown of pure silk taffeta was designed with a portrait neckline, embellished with tulle and Alencon lace. The princess bodice was enhanced with re-embroidered Alencon lace, and long sleeves ended in points over her hands. The extremely bouffant skirt terminated into a full chapel train and her veil of French illusion was held in place with a cap of Alencon lace with pearl and orange blossom trim and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with a cluster of shattered carnations centered with a gold throat or- chid.

The attendants wore wait length gowns of cotillion blue taffeta fashioned with elongated bodices edged with matching lace ending in a bow and streamers in the back. They wore matching blue daisy half hats with circular veils. Mrs. Donald McDowell of Toledo, was matron of honor, carrying pink and white carnations. Other attendants Miss Rebecca Waters and Mrs. Robert Haines of Washington C. H. carried pink carnations.

Mr. Donald McDowell of Toledo, served as best man and ushers were Mr. James Scanlon, Jr., Mrs. Alban McCann, Jr., of Columbus, and Mr. Paul Nestor of Clyde.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Washington Country Club immediately following the wedding and Mrs. Kimmey received the guests in a sheath dress of periwinkle blue taffeta, a white leaf hat and other accessories of white. Mrs. Eberst was wearing a bolero dress of Dior blue taffeta, accented with a white satin hat, and other accessories of Dior blue. Both mothers had shoulder corsages of gardenias.

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Jesse Persinger, Miss Jean Boylan of Washington C. H.; Mrs. James Scanlon, Jr., Mrs. Robert Specht, Mrs. Richard Roby, Mrs. David Sheidler, Mrs. Paul Nestor, all of Columbus; Mrs. Jerry Meadows of Paoli, Indiana; Mrs. Walter Eberhardt of Dayton, cousin of the bride was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's table, covered with a white satin cloth with a full floor length ruffle dotted with white carnations was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, decorated with pastel blue rosebuds and was topped with the traditional bride and groom.

Tall standards of white pom pom chrysanthemums provided a background for the table and with greenery also added to the beautiful setting in the club lounge.

Later, when the new Mr. and Mrs. Eberst left on their honeymoon through the Eastern States the bride was wearing a black wool ensemble, the jacket lined with gold satin, had gold leaf trim and accessories of gold and black, with the orchid from her bouquet pinned at her shoulder.

The bride, a graduate of Washington C. H. High School and Mt. Carmel Hospital School of Nursing was until her marriage a member of the nursing staff at Memorial Hospital and will be affiliated with St. Ann's Hospital, Columbus.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Ohio State University, where he was a member of Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity, is now identified with the Ohio Medical Indemnity Incorporated in Columbus as personnel manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Eberst will be at home to their friends at their newly established home at 1635 E. Mount St., in Columbus, upon their return from their wedding trip.

Beautiful Morning Wedding Unites Couple In Marriage

MRS. JAMES LEE EBERST

White chrysanthemums and gladioli in cathedral vases and altars of white button pom poms decorated St. Colman's Church on Saturday for the wedding at eleven o'clock in the morning, when Miss Nancy Kimmey, daughter of Mrs. Meyers Kimmey and the late Mr. Kimmey became the bride of Mr. Lee James Eberst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Eberst, 612 Fairwood Ave., Columbus. The Rev. Father Richard J. Connelly officiated at the Nuptial High Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Kenneth Carr of Cincinnati. Her gown of pure silk taffeta was designed with a portrait neckline, embellished with tulle and Alencon lace. The princess bodice was enhanced with re-embroidered Alencon lace, and long sleeves ended in points over her hands. The extremely bouffant skirt terminated into a full chapel train and her veil of French illusion was held in place with a cap of Alencon lace with pearl and orange blossom trim and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with a cluster of shattered carnations centered with a gold throated orchid.

The attendants wore waltz length gowns of cotton blue taffeta fashioned with elongated bodices edged with matching lace ending in a bow and streamers in the back. They wore matching blue daisy half hats with circular veils. Mrs. Donald McDowell of Toledo, was matron of honor, carrying pink and white carnations. Other attendants Miss Rebecca Waters and Mrs. Robert Haines of Washington C. H. carried pink carnations.

Mr. Donald McDowell of Toledo, served as best man and ushers were Mr. James Scanlon, Jr., Mrs. Alban McCann, Jr., of Columbus, and Mr. Paul Nestor of Clyde.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Washington Country Club immediately following the wedding and Mrs. Kimmey received the guests in a sheath dress of periwinkle blue taffeta, a white leaf hat and other accessories of white. Mrs. Eberst was wearing a bolero dress of Dior blue taffeta, accented with a white satin hat, and other accessories of Dior blue. Both mothers had shoulder corsages of gardenias.

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Jessie Persinger, Miss Jean Boylan of Washington C. H.; Mrs. James Scanlon, Jr., Mrs. Robert Specht, Mrs. Richard Roby, Mrs. David Sheidler, Mrs. Paul Nestor, all of Columbus; Mrs. Jerry Meadows of Paoli, Indiana, Mrs. Walter Eberhardt of Dayton, cousin of the bride was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's table, covered with a white satin cloth with a full floor length ruffle dotted with white carnations was centered with a three

Young Adult Class Meets Sunday Evening

The regular meeting of the Young Adult Class of Sugar Creek Baptist Church was held at the church Sunday evening with a good attendance of members present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Harry Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Donohoe were in charge of the worship period which included the reading of an article on Thanksgiving, the singing of a hymn and closed with prayer.

The usual reports were heard and tiered wedding cake, decorated with pastel blue rosebuds and was topped with the traditional bride and groom.

Tall standards of white pom pom chrysanthemums provided a background for the table and with greenery also added to the beautiful setting in the club lounge.

Later, when the new Mr. and Mrs. Eberst left on their honeymoon through the Eastern States the bride was wearing a black wool ensemble, the jacket lined with gold satin, had gold leaf trim and accessories of gold and black, with the orchid from her bouquet pinned at her shoulder.

The bride, a graduate of Washington C. H. High School and Mt. Carmel Hospital School of Nursing was until her marriage a member of the nursing staff at Memorial Hospital and will be affiliated with St. Ann's Hospital, Columbus.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Ohio State University, where he was a member of Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity, is now identified with the Ohio Medical Indemnity Incorporated in Columbus as personnel manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Eberst will be at home to their friends at their newly established home at 1635 E. Mound St., in Columbus, upon their return from their wedding trip.

approved and Mr. Herbert Garringer was reported as ill.

Plans were made for the next meeting Dec. 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orley Varney Jr., with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Trimmer as assisting host and hostess, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace will be in charge of the program.

The business meeting was closed with the singing of a hymn and contests were conducted by the program committee, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Trimmer and Mr. and Mrs. Orley Varney Jr.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the committee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haines.

Members present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Trimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Orley Varney Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Donohoe.

Little Balance Seen Now in Pro Grid Loop

4 Teams in League Hold 60 Pct. of Wins; Season only Half Over

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Every promoter's dream—a balanced league—is merely a wishful thought this pro football season.

With just about half the games in the record books after Sunday's five-game card, the National Football League cannot even boast a balanced division.

Four of the 12 league teams hold 60 per cent of the victories, and two are in each conference. Furthermore, no other team has more wins than setbacks!

Yet it's doubtful if you'll hear anybody kicking. Both conferences are featuring rousing two-team dogfights and 204,941 attended Sunday's games.

Detroit is the big winner among big winners. The unbeaten Lions, Western Conference leaders, grabbed off their sixth straight by topping the San Francisco 49ers 17-13 on the West Coast.

Several hundred miles to the south the Chicago Bears stayed one game off the Western pace with a 35-24 decision over the Los Angeles Rams. The Bears are 5-1 and haven't lost since opening day when Baltimore knocked them off 28-21.

In the Eastern Conference, New York's Giants and Chicago's Cardinals remixed deadlocked for the top at 5-1 as both checked in with triumphs over division opponents. The Giants edged the host Pittsburgh Steelers 17-14, and Chicago rolled over the visiting Philadelphia Eagles 28-17.

The Cleveland Browns broke a three-game losing streak and moved into a three-way tie for fourth in the East with a 24-7 upset of Green Bay's Packers at Milwaukee. Cleveland is now 2-4, as are the Eagles and Steelers.

Washington, idle Sunday, is third in the East with a 2-3 mark.

Baltimore (2-3) is third in the West followed by the Packers (2-4) and the Rams and 49ers (both 1-5).

That means the Lions, Cards, Bears and Giants have won 21 of the 35 games played.

The Bears and Lions will have showdowns Dec. 2 at Detroit and Dec. 16 at Chicago. The Cards and Giants clash next Sunday at New York.

Veteran Leon Hart and rookie Hopalong Cassidy carried the rushing load for the Lions. Hart tallied twice on short-yardage plunges. Bobby Layne, Lion quarterback, contributed two extra points and a field goal. The 49ers featured Joe Arenas' 90-yard kick-off return.

For the second week in a row puncheon Philadelphia jumped off to a 3-0 lead on a field goal by Bobby Walton and then faded. Just as the Giants came back a week ago, the Cards took over after the first period and before the final gun Lamar McHan had passed four times for TD's.

A field goal by Ben Agajanian with 16 seconds remaining in the half provided the difference for the Giants. But a busy defense headed by Bill Svoboda came up with a key fumble recovery and a timely pass interception to thwart the Steelers who fought back from a 10-0 halftime deficit.

Alex Webster and Kyle Rote recorded the giant TD's, while Sid Watson scored twice for the Steelers.

The Rams held the Bears to a 21-21 halftime tie, but the losers, who did their scoring on a pass interception and two runs, took to the air and met disaster. Two passes by Norm Van Brocklin were picked off by Bear defenders, and rookie Perry Jeter followed up both with scoring dashes. Rick Casares gained 132 yards

Lions Review Hilliards Game, Gird for Finale

Washington High School football coaches, fans and players still were shaking their heads Monday morning over the 37-13 loss to Hilliards Friday night.

Most of them felt that the Wildcats didn't have as much punch as the Eastmoor team the Lions defeated here a week ago.

"Hilliards executed its plays better, but didn't hit as hard," said Coach Fred Domenico.

"I don't know what was wrong, but we just didn't have it," added quarterback John Bainter, whose 72-yard run had been one of the bright spots in an otherwise gloomy evening.

Those who know seem to agree that the Blue Lions have no one to blame but themselves. Evidently they know how to play ball, they have the ability to play ball, but for some mysterious reason they won't always do it when the chips are down.

THE FINAL GAME of the season will be played here Friday against Circleville. The Tigers have been having a rough season, too, losing five straight games. However, they have won their last two contests, and promise to be rough opponents.

Today the Blue Lions will be

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Quietly and without fanfare the first group of U. S. Olympic Team athletes walked down a concourse at Los Angeles International Airport Sunday night and boarded a plane for Australia.

Among the group of 64 were members of the canoeing and wrestling teams, Tug Wilson, president of the U. S. Olympic Committee and other officials.

Six other flights, carrying the remainder of the 450 team members and officials are scheduled to leave Los Angeles before next Sunday.

The games start Nov. 22.

Bethea Pitted Against Turner

NEW YORK (AP)—Wayne Bethea, a New York heavyweight who has beaten Ezzard Charles and Jimmy Slade and stopped Jamaican Joe Bygraves in recent bouts, takes on Ho i Turner, another newcomer, in tonight's 10-round match at St. Nicholas Arena.

Turner will be making his first main event start after 21 preliminary outings just as Bethea graduated from the undercard ranks about a year ago. Bethea has won six straight in his career record of 12-4-2. Turner's record is 17-1-3.

For the Bears on 25 carries. The quarterback - thin Browns turned over the ground-gaining to Preston Carpenter and Ed Modzelewski, and they responded with 181 yards on 43 carries split about evenly. A strong Browns' defense held the Packers scoreless for the first three periods.

Times Square Loses by Nose

2nd Heat of Classic Slated Next Saturday

Times Square, Eddie Kirk's great pacer, today was being groomed for the second heat of the three-heat $75,000 American Classic at Hollywood Park, Englewood, Calif., after being nosed out in a photo finish by Dottie's Pick in the first heat Saturday.

Times Square, with Eddie Cobb of Washington C. H. at the reins, went away in seventh position, but took the top at the half with Dottie's Pick moving with him.

As they rounded the turn for home, Dottie's Pick inched in front, and from there to the wire it was a see-saw battle until they hit the finish in 1:59.3. Diamond Hal was third, among the 15 starters.

Dottie's Pick paid $6, 3.20 and 2-40 in the mutuels; Times Square paid $7.10 to place and $3.70 to show and Diamond Hal paid $2.40 to show.

It was a two-horse race with Times Square and Dottie's Pick 2 1/2 lengths in front of the field.

THIS WAS Times Square's first race in a month and his second start of the season in California. He had been laid up with a sore leg, and Cobb told Kirk after the race that he did not want to push him too hard in the stretch.

Kirk was there for the race and came back by plane Sunday night.

The American Classic is raced in three heats, each a week apart. Kirk said he thought Times Square would be in better condition for the second heat next Saturday, now that he has had the first heat "tightener" behind him.

A companion feature, the $75,000 American Classic for trotters, started the previous week. Scott Frost won the opener, but Jean Laird, driven by Cobb won the second heat last Saturday. The last heat of the classic for trotters will be raced next Saturday, the same day the second heat is raced by the pacers. Jean Laird trotted the mile on the outside in 1:59.1 to defeat Scott Frost.

Bluffton, the state's only unbeaten and untied team with eight straight wins, had a tough time staying that way as the busy Beavers eked out a 20-19 conquest over Ashland to annex the Mid-Ohio league championship.

Bowling Green and John Carroll are unbeaten, but each has been tied.

Browns Pass But 4 Times, Trip Packers

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, using the forward pass only four times in their 58 plays from scrimmage, wore down the Green Bay Packers Sunday with a relentless ground attack and won 24-7.

The Browns got good mileage from those four aeriels.

Quarterback Babe Parilli, who was understudy to Tobin Rote of the Packers before going into military service, completed two of the three he tried, including one for a touchdown. The other was intercepted, but no harm resulted.

Young Tom O'Connell, the recently acquired rookie, tried one pass which went incomplete near the end of the contest.

Cleveland didn't need its air attack because of the workmanlike jobs of rookie halfback Preston Carpenter and fullback Ed Modzelewski.

Carpenter ran 91 yards in 21 attempts and "big Mo" had 90 in 22 tries. The Browns' ground attack had a net yardage of 202, and Parilli's two completed passes were for 7 yards.

The Cleveland defense, with Bob Gain helping at left end, held the Packers scoreless until the fourth quarter. Green Bay went downfield in less than two minutes, mostly on two passes from Rote to Billy Howton. The scoring play was a 10-yarder to Howton.

An unusual play, before many of the 28,590 fans had settled down, gave the Browns a 7-0 lead. Al Carmichael, hit hard by the left side of the Browns' line, fumbled on the Green Bay 28. In the tangle of legs and arms it appeared the Browns recovered, but the ball suddenly squirted out of the pile into the arms of Chuck Noll who g loped 39 yards for a score.

During 1942 and 1943 Count Fleet won three races at Pimlico by a combined total of 43 lengths.

Syracuse Star Shows Peak Form

NEW YORK (AP)—For two years they've been saying Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals is going to have a new mailing address, but Sunday night the eight-year National Basketball Assn. veteran showed why the Nats have quite a few qualms about trading their All-Star forward.

Witness the Nats 78-76 loss to the St. Louis Hawks, which still left Syracuse in first place in the Eastern Division with a 3-1 record.

Schayes, consistently rumored to be returning to New York where he starred as a collegian at New York University, scored 28 points.

While Schayes was fighting a losing one man cause, the Minneapolis Lakers took a 88-87 decision from Rochester and the New York Knickerbockers defeated Ft. Wayne 96-83.

Little Balance Seen Now in Pro Grid Loop

4 Teams in League Hold 60 Pct. of Wins; Season only Half Over

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Every promoter's dream—a balanced league—is merely a wishful thought this pro football season.

With just about half the games in the record books after Sunday's five-game card, the National Football League cannot even boast a balanced division.

Four of the 12 league teams hold 60 per cent of the victories, and two are in each conference. Furthermore, no other team has more wins than setbacks.

Yet it's doubtful if you'll hear anybody kicking. Both conferences are featuring rousing two-team dogfights and 204,041 attended Sunday's games.

Detroit is the big winner among big winners. The unbeaten Lions, Western Conference leaders, grabbed off their sixth straight by topping the San Francisco 49ers 17-13 on the West Coast.

Several hundred miles to the south the Chicago Bears stayed one game off the Western pace with a 35-24 decision over the Los Angeles Rams. The Bears are 5-1 and haven't lost since opening day when Baltimore knocked them off 28-21.

In the Eastern Conference, New York's Giants and Chicago's Cardinals remained deadlocked for the top at 5-1 as both checked in with triumphs over division opponents. The Giants edged the host Pittsburgh Steelers 17-14, and Chicago rolled over the visiting Philadelphia Eagles 28-17.

The Cleveland Browns broke a three-game losing streak and moved into a three-way tie for fourth in the East with a 24-7 upset of Green Bay's Packers at Milwaukee. Cleveland is now 2-4, as are the Eagles and Steelers.

Washington, idle Sunday, is third in the East with a 2-3 mark.

Baltimore (2-3) is third in the West followed by the Packers (2-4) and the Rams and 49ers (both 1-5).

That means the Lions, Cards, Bears and Giants have won 21 of the 35 games played.

The Bears and Lions will have showdowns Dec. 2 at Detroit and Dec. 16 at Chicago. The Cards and Giants clash next Sunday at New York.

Veteran Leon Hart and rookie Hopalong Cassidy carried the rushing load for the Lions. Hart tallied twice on short-yardage plunges. Bobby Layne, Lion quarterback, contributed two extra points and a field goal. The 49ers featured Joe Arenas' 90-yard kick-off return.

For the second week in a row, punter Philadelphian jumped off to a 30-yard lead on the field goal by Bobby Walston and then faded. Just as the Giants came back a week ago, the Cards took over after the first period and before the final gun Lamar McHan had passed four times for TD's.

A field goal by Ben Agajanian with 16 seconds remaining in the half provided the difference for the Giants. But a busy defense headed by Bill Svoboda came up with a key fumble recovery and a timely pass interception to thwart the Steelers who fought back from a 10-0 halftime deficit. Alex Webster and Kyle Rote recorded the giant TD's, while Sid Watson scored twice for the Steelers.

The Rams held the Bears to a 21-21 halftime tie, but the losers, who did their scoring on a pass interception and two runs, took to the air and met disaster. Two passes by Norm Van Brocklin were picked off by Bear defenders, and rookie Perry Jeter followed up both with scoring dashes. Rick Casares gained 132 yards

Washington High School football coaches, fans and players still were shaking their heads Monday morning over the 37-13 loss to Hilliards Friday night.

Most of them felt that the Wildcats didn't have as much punch as the Eastmoor team the Lions defeated here a week ago.

"Hilliards executed its plays better, but didn't hit as hard," said Coach Fred Domenico.

"I don't know what was wrong, but we just didn't have it," added quarterback John Bainter, whose 72-yard run had been one of the bright spots in an otherwise gloomy evening.

Those who know seem to agree that the Blue Lions have no one to blame but themselves. Evidently they know how to play ball, they have the ability to play ball, but for some mysterious reason they won't always do it when the chips are down.

THE FINAL GAME of the season will be played here Friday against Circleville. The Tigers have been having a rough season, too, losing five straight games. However, they have won their last two contests, and promise to be fought opponents.

Today the Blue Lions will be

First U. S. Olympic Stars Head South

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Quietly and without fanfare the first group of U. S. Olympic Team athletes walked down a concourse at Los Angeles International Airport Sunday night and boarded a plane for Australia.

Among the group of 64 were members of the canoeing and wrestling teams, Tug Wilson, president of the U. S. Olympic Committee and other officials.

Six other flights, carrying the remainder of the 450 team members and officials are scheduled to leave Los Angeles before next Sunday.

The games start Nov. 22.

Bethea Pitted Against Turner

NEW YORK (AP)—Wayne Bethea, young New York heavyweight who has beaten Ezzard Charles and Jimmy Slade and stopped Jamaican's Joe Bygraves in recent bouts, takes on Ho I. Turner, another newcomer, in tonight's 10-round match at St. Nick's Arena.

Turner will be making his first main event start after 21 preliminary outings just as Bethea graduated from the undercard ranks about a year ago. Bethea has won six straight in his career record of 12-4-2. Turner's record is 17-1-3.

For the Bears on 25 carries. The quarterback—thin Browns turned over the ground-gaining to Preston Carpenter and Ed Modzelewski, and they responded with 181 yards on 43 carries split about evenly. A strong Browns' defense held the Packers scoreless for the first three periods.

Times Square Loses by Nose

2nd Heat of Classic Slated Next Saturday

Times Square, Eddie Kirk's great pacer, today was being groomed for the second heat of the three-heat $75,000 American Classic at Hollywood Park, Englewood, Calif., after being nosed out in a photo finish by Dottie's Pick in the first heat Saturday.

Times Square, with Eddie Cobb of Washington C. H. at the reins, went away in seventh position, but took the top at the half with Dottie's Pick moving with him.

As they rounded the turn for home, Dottie's Pick inched in front, and from there to the wire it was a see-saw battle until they hit the finish in 1:59.3. Diamond Hal was third, among the 15 starters.

Dottie's Pick paid $6, 3.20 and 2-40 in the mutuels; Times Square paid $7.10 to place and $3.70 to show and Diamond Hal paid $2.40 to show.

It was a two-horse race with Times Square and Dottie's Pick 2 1/4 lengths in front of the field.

THIS WAS Times Square's first race in a month and his second start of the season in California. He had been laid up with a sore leg, and Cobb told Kirk after the race that he did not want to push him too hard in the stretch.

Kirk was there for the race and came back by plane Sunday night. The American Classic is raced in three heats, each a week apart. Kirk said he thought Times Square would be in better condition for the second heat next Saturday, now that he has had the first heat "tightener" behind him.

A companion feature, the $75,000 American Classic for trotters, started the previous week. Scott Frost won the opener, but Jean Laird, driven by Cobb, won the second heat last Saturday. The last heat of the classic for trotters will be raced next Saturday, the same day the second heat is raced by the pacers. Jean Laird trotted the mile on the outside in 1:59.1 to defeat Scott Frost.

Browns Pass But 4 Times, Trip Packers

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, using the forward pass only four times in their 58 plays from scrimmage, wore down the Green Bay Packers Sunday with a relentless ground attack and won 24-7.

The Browns got good mileage from those four aeriels.

Quarterback Babe Parilli, who was understudy to Tobin Rote of the Packers before going into military service, completed two of the three he tried, including one for a touchdown. The other was intercepted, but no harm resulted. Young Tom O'Connell, the recently acquired rookie, tried one pass which went incomplete near the end of the contest.

Cleveland didn't need its air attack because of the workmanlike jobs of rookie halfback Preston Carpenter and fullback Ed Modzelewski.

Carpenter ran 91 yards in 21 attempts and "big Mo" had 90 in 22 tries. The Browns' ground attack had a net yardage of 202, and Parilli's two completed passes were for 7 yards.

The Cleveland defense, with Bob Gain helping at left end, held the Packers scoreless until the fourth quarter. Green Bay went downfield in less than two minutes, mostly on two passes from Rote to Billy Howton. The scoring play was a 10-yarder to Howton.

An unusual play, before many of the 28,500 fans had settled down, gave the Browns a 7-0 lead. Al Carmichael, hit hard by the left side of the Browns' line, fumbled on the Green Bay 28. In the tangle of legs and arms it appeared the Browns recovered, but the ball suddenly squirted out of the pile into the arms of Chuck Noll who galloped 39 yards for a score.

boosted Coach Jim MacHoltz' starting team in recent weeks.

Bailey was a letter man in track and earned a football monogram with the Blue Lions.

Syracuse Star Shows Peak Form

NEW YORK (AP)—For two years they've been saying Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals is going to have a new mailing address, but Sunday night the eight-year National Basketball Assn. veteran showed why the Nats have quite a few qualms about trading their All-Star forward.

Witness the Nats 78-76 loss to the St. Louis Hawks, which still left Syracuse in first place in the Eastern Division with a 3-1 record.

Schayes, consistently rumored to be returning to New York where he starred as a collegian at New York University, scored 28 points.

While Schayes was fighting a losing one man cause, the Minneapolis Lakers took a 88-87 decision from Rochester and the New York Knickerbockers defeated Ft. Wayne 96-83.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation
 HWW ATW XEKFYWDPKJ TWDE
 XEVWH! HEYKI ATW ADYVBWAH.
 RWGA ATW IDYVH!—SWW.
 Saturday's Cryptquote: IT IS A TRUE PROVERB THAT IF YOU LIVE WITH A LAME MAN YOU WILL LEARN TO HALT — PLUTARCH.

NEWS VIEWS

BY RAY BRANDENBURG

There was a bit of news the other day that must have been a great relief to a lot of people... "Adolf Hitler is dead." (No flowers, please) Yes, the official declaration came from a court in Germany nearly eleven years ago — a half year after V-E Day.

Well, sometimes new travels at peculiar rates of speed. What with radio, television and electronic computers, we are told in most cases what the election results are before all the voting booths are closed. On the other hand, at lunch time you may hear a dress shop owner tell you he's thinking about putting on a big clearance sale... but you have to wait till evening before your wife can give you all the details.

Tomorrow is election day. Too many folks do not seem to realize the importance of voting. We should do our best to inform ourselves to the very best of our ability about the candidates and the issues being voted upon.

I'll admit it's quite a job to sort out the facts from so much political chaff. But let us do our level best to make up our minds on both issues and candidates and vote for what we sincerely believe to be right. But be sure and vote. The man or woman who does not vote has no right to criticize.

Then after election let's all accept the fact that majority rules and join together to make our community, our state and our nation a better place to live and raise our kids.

Don't forget! Come out Friday, November 9 and see the fine new 1957 Buick.

I see where the Columbus, Ohio, Bureau of Unemployment Compensation is dropping 100 employees because the load of claims has dropped off. The news could be worse... There's always good news for car owners at R. Brandenburg Motor Sales. It's good to know you can rely on our Service Department to assure your safety and to safeguard your investment.

ROY ALWAYS HAD A FLAIR FOR SINGING. EVEN WHEN HE WAS JUST A LITTLE FELLOW HE COULD CARRY A TUNE BETTER THAN MOST BROWNIES!

HE GOT THE JOB SINGING IN THE GREEN TIGER ALL BY HIMSELF!

AT FIRST I WAS DEAD SET AGAINST IT. BUT HE HAS SUCH A MATURE ATTITUDE THAT I FINALLY GAVE MY PERMISSION.

AIN'T SINGING A KIND OF ROUGH RACKET?

OH, HE'S NOT GOING TO BE A SINGER! HE'S JUST EARNING ENOUGH MONEY FOR A COLLEGE EDUCATION. THAT PART'S ALL SETTLED!

DKG Society Holds Workshop At Episcopal Church Here

The regional meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma Society, representing 20 chapters of the southern district convened at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Saturday. Seventy-two members were in attendance at the workshop primarily for officers and chairmen to share new ideas and viewpoints for inspiration and motivation in the field of education.

Following a breakfast hour, the group assembled to hear the state president, Dr. Dorothy Kester of Akron outline the program for the day. Dr. Kester expressed the appreciation of the visiting chapters for the invitation from Alpha Delta of Washington C. H. to share the regional meeting.

Other state officers introduced by Dr. Kester were: Miss Ruth Seitz, Dayton, first vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Marie Munzenmayer of Kent, treasurer;

Miss Mary E. Wurdack, Zanesville, scholarship chairman; Miss Aileen Reiner of Pickerington, selective recruitment chairman and Miss Georgina Silliman, Girard, initiation substitute chairman.

ALL DEPARTMENTS were represented by chapter members, whose presidents were presented before the group assignments were distributed.

A workshop discussion of the program for the year, focusing on world fellowship and teacher recruitment preceded the luncheon. Emphasis was placed on good planning, active participation, and leadership to provide a forward look in teaching.

The invocation by Mrs. Martha Trace was followed by the singing of the Delta Kappa Gamma song, with Miss Kathleen Davis as leader and Miss Jane Trent as accompanist.

Mrs. Amelia Child, president of the Washington C. H. chapter, conducted the meeting at the conclusion of the luncheon, introducing the chapter presidents and members present and presenting Dr. Kester, who reviewed some of the highlights of the national convention of Delta Kappa Gamma, which was held in New Orleans during the summer.

The second workshop discussion followed with the state officers again as directors. The program discussion emphasized a complete yearbook, with program planning focused on more active participation in world fellowship, teacher recruitment, and assistance to new teachers.

William Alfred, assistant farm director for WLW, will be the moderator for a panel of local members who will discuss the resolutions to be presented to the membership for their approval.

Two groups from Wayne High School will provide the entertainment for the meeting. The Three Teens, which includes Barbara Kneisley, Edna Hoppes and Jackie Hoppes will present several numbers and there will be a duet by Dica and Alma McCormick.

Officers for next year will be elected with nominations to be presented by Maurice Sollars, chairman of the nominating committee. Other members of the nominating committee are Hazel Moyer, Tex Grim, William Dunn, Charles Hiser, Hugh Creamer and Charles Cook.

The resolutions committee is composed of Kenneth Bush, chairman; Leland Dorn, Joe McFadden, W. S. Alexander, Mrs. H. W. Melvin, Mrs. Ray Fisher, Preston Dray, Mrs. Reba Straley and Herbert Burton.

Following the meeting a fellowship period, with refreshments, will be held under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. John Ritenour. Other members of the refreshment committee are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pero, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Persinger, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Reeb, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Dowler and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Rowland.

Hobby Club Meets Here Friday Night

Roscoe Whiteside, of Paint Township, president of the Fayette County Hobby Club, announced Monday that the next meeting of the organization will be held at 6:30 p. m. Friday in the City Building.

Eisenhower, who campaigned far more than he had said he was going to, has shown every outward sign of vigor. And he has repeatedly said he feels fine.

The other burning issue in the campaign has been Stevenson's proposal that the United States take the lead in seeking an international agreement to end testing of big hydrogen bombs, coupled with a request for an end to the military draft as soon as that can be done consistent with the national safety.

Eisenhower has lumped these two proposals together and termed them "a design for disaster." He insists that no agreement to end H-bomb tests is safe without a system of inspection to be sure that Russia does not violate it.

Stevenson, who made continued H-bomb testing the theme of many of his speeches, replied that Eisenhower's position was one of "hopeless defeatism."

Aside from this, the draft and farm policy, there have been few sharp differences between the two presidential candidates. On other questions their differences have been more a matter of emphasis and approach.

Youth Gives Up After Wild Chase

Stolen Car Wrecked; Driver Faces Court

A 17-year-old Hillsboro youth today is facing the prospect of explaining a brief, whirlwind spree through Millwood in a 1951 station-wagon he allegedly stole from the rear of the Ben Montgomery service station on Market St., about 11 p. m. Saturday.

According to police, Fire Chief George Hall saw the station wagon squealing around corners and, gave chase.

The trail led back of the Morton Show Case Co., plant on Lakeview Ave. Just when Hall thought he had the driver trapped, the youth squeezed between his car and a fence, scraping the fender of Hall's car.

Hall gave chase again, but this time it did not last long; the youth crashed into a tree near the intersection of Lakeview Ave., and Jupiter St.

BY THE TIME Hall reached the scene, the driver had fled afoot and Hall called from a house nearby for the police cruiser. Patrolmen Elmer Kelly and Lang Laytard then joined the search.

About half an hour later, the youth walked into the police station and gave himself up.

His father was called, and after a long talk with police, the youth was cited to appear in Juvenile Court here and then released to his father.

Eventually it was learned that the station wagon belonged to Faye Washburn, Jr., 543 Comfort Lane. The police report fixed the damage at $400 to $500 and noted it was a total loss.

No mention was made of injury to the young driver.

Hall explained that he was on his way to make his nightly check of the "sewer lift station" on Jupiter St., when he first saw the speeding station wagon.

stored. Authorities arrested 32 demonstrators.

Russia protested to Britain and France that the invasion preliminary of closing the eastern Mediterranean to commercial shipping amounted to aggression against other states as well as Egypt.

Damascus radio quoted the Egyptians as saying seven British and French planes were shot down yesterday during a two-hour raid on Cairo. The British admitted only the loss of one fighter plane at that stage.

The Suez Canal remained blocked by the ships and British and French accused the Egyptians of sinking in the waterway. The Egyptians have countercharged that British and French planes sank the ships and blocked the canal.

The Egyptians appeared to be paying little attention to the Israelis, whose invasion of the Sinai Peninsula last Monday preceded the British-French action.

Israel's latest military claim was the reported capture of two Tiran islands which command the entrance to the Gulf of Aqaba. This would provide Israel free access to the gulf and its main port of Elath, on the southwest end of Israel.

Mrs. Minnie Morris Dies Sunday Night

Mrs. Minnie Morris, 80, widow of Jonathan Morris, died at 7:30 p. m. Sunday in University Hospital, Columbus, where she had been a patient three weeks.

Mrs. Morris, who lived at 214 McKinley Ave., had been in failing health three years and seriously ill for the past three weeks.

The daughter of Richard and Sarah Pearce, she was born and raised in Fayette County where she had spent the greater part of her life. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and its missionary society, and the Victoria Bible Class, taking an active interest in all church affairs.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Gertrude Vincent, Washington C. H., and a niece, Mrs. Delbert S. Mann, St. Louis. Her husband died in 1942.

Services will be at 3 p. m. Wednesday in the Gerstner Funeral Home, with the Rev. Harold B. Twining, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Washington Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after noon Tuesday.

Ernest Pollard, 76, Dies at Greenfield

Ernest Pollard, 76, died early Monday in the Greenfield Hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Pollard, a retired farmer, had lived in Greenfield for the last 15 years. He was a member of the Greenfield Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Jane; two sons, Ernest Jr., and Elmer, both of Grove City; two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Wise, Greenfield, and Mrs. Edith Redkey, Columbus; a sister, Mrs. Mildred Meadows, South Charleston; a brother, Orla Pollard, Sabina; and 12 grandchildren.

Four children preceded him in death.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Struve Funeral Home, Greenfield, with the Rev. Clair S. Emerick officiating.

Burial will be in Greenfield Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after noon Tuesday.

Mrs. Sadie Pollard Heart Attack Victim

Mrs. Sadie Pollard, 67, of 829 Lakeview Ave., died of a heart attack Monday morning shortly after she reported for work at the U. S. Shoe Corp. plant in Greenfield.

Mrs. Pollard was a member of the Church of Christ in Christian Union here.

She is survived by a daughter, Miss Dorothy Pollard, Chicago; a son, Raymond, Cincinnati; a sister, Mrs. Maude Mead, Waverly; four brothers, Herman and Elmer Ward, of Waverly, and Ralph and Raymond Ward, Columbus.

Funeral arrangements, which will be under direction of the Gerstner Funeral Home, have not been completed.

On June 17, 1909 a Congressional Medal was presented to Orville and Wilbur Wright, inventors of the airplane.

Record Crowd Attends Gun, Relic Exhibit

All previous records for numbers of exhibitors, guns, Indian relics, and visitors, were broken at the fall meeting of the Central Ohio Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association, Inc., held at the Merchant's Building at the Fairground Saturday and Sunday.

Several thousand guns and Indian relics, as well as many other articles, were offered for sale and trade.

Not only was the out of county attendance larger than ever before, but more local residents attended.

Large numbers of guns and other articles changed hands, and many persons who were not exhibitors, took guns to the show and sold or traded them for something they wanted.

EXHIBITORS were here from several states, many coming Friday evening and spending two nights at hotels and motels, but as usual, most of the exhibitors came Sunday morning.

Sixteen new members were enrolled during the day, bringing the total membership to around 450.

Ottie Stookey, president the past two years, had announced that he would not be a candidate for the position another year due to other business, and at the annual election Charles L. Kislung was chosen president, Ervin Ritter, New Martinsburg, vice president, and Coyt A. Stookey, secretary-treasurer.

Directors elected included Ottie Stookey, Kenneth Craig, O. O. Bush, Paul Souther, Walter McLean and Van Matlock.

The VFW Post auxiliary served lunch throughout the day.

The next meeting will be held in January with the time and place to be announced later.

Drunk Driver Fined, Jailed

Lewis H. Reed, 61, Route 4, arrested at 3 a. m. Saturday on Paint St. and charged with driving while drunk, was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to 10 days in jail and suspended from driving for a year when he pleaded guilty in Municipal Court Monday morning.

Judge Max G. Dice, however, granted him permission to drive to and from Washington C. H. to do his shopping and for emergencies.

He was arrested by Sgt. Charles Foster and Patrolman Elmer Kelly.

James E. Saylor, 36, (address not given), forfeited $20 bond for speeding on Route 62;

Roy E. Barton, 61, of 228 Water St., insufficient lights, $5 and costs; Denver J. Hart, 24, of 701 E. Paint St., forfeited $15 bond for failure to yield right-of-way.

ARRESTED by city police were: Loyal P. Anderson, 42, Route 1, Peebles, forfeited $20 bond for excessive noise;

Gloria L. Williamson, 18, of 1023 Washington Ave., $5 and costs for running a red light;

Walter M. McCullah, 19, Route 3, $5 and costs for having a Holly-wood muffler on his car;

Roddy Rummans, 24, Route 2, $5 and costs for excessive noise.

Wiant Speakers At Grace Church

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Wiant were the featured speakers at the third in the series of Sunday Evening Fellowship suppers at Grace Methodist Church.

Ralph Nisley was in charge of the worship service in the Sanctuary. The choir was composed of men from the Men's Bible Class who led the congregation in a hymn sing.

Dr. Wiant's topic was "Fellowship with People in Korea." Mrs. Wiant showed slides of Korea and Sarawak to the Senior MYF group.

Next Sunday will be the last in the series of meetings, and at that time, Dr. Wiant will show pictures taken in many of the countries where he has lived and worked as an architect.

Mailing Package Overseas? Better Check the Deadlines

It's later than you think...and if you want to send a Christmas gift package to someone overseas, you had better be getting out your wrapping paper and stamps now.

This goes for civilians as well as those in the military service. Postmaster Clark Wickensimer said.

For reasonable assurance that your package will be delivered before Christmas, Wickensimer said it should be mailed not later than Nov. 15. The only exception is the Dec. 1 deadline for air parcel post; but for this there are some restrictions as to size, such as the 2-pound weight limit.

PACKAGES for Alaska, Puerto Rico and Hawaii, while overseas, may be mailed up until Dec. 1, Wickensimer explained, because the distance is not so great.

The Washington C. H. postmaster summarized the Christmas gift package situation like this:

Before you arrange to send a gift package to an overseas address, considerable time and expense may be saved if you first find out about the requirements of the U. S. Export Control Regulations and the gift parcel regulations of the country of destination.

Postal authorities will not accept gift parcels which do not conform to the export-import control regulations. In order to have some as-urance that your gift parcel will reach its destination, it is important that you follow the regulations of the country of destination governing the contents of the package and other requirements.

This information can be secured at the post office.

Leo W. Hart, 61, Dies Here Sunday

Leo Willard Hart, 61, of 317 Worley St., died Sunday evening in his residence. A carpenter, Mr. Hart was a native of Highland County and had come here five years ago from the Leesburg community.

He was the son of Thomas and Clarabelle Reed Hart.

Survivors are his wife, Ann Irene; two daughters, Mrs. Louella Mc-Killip, Muncie, Ind., and Mrs. Doris Hopkins, Dayton; a son, Herman, Dayton; two stepchildren, Francis King, Amherst, and Mrs. Eleanor Simmons, Greenfield; seven grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two brothers, Ralph V. Hart, Wilmington, and Winifred Hart, Martinsville.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Walker and Anderson Funeral Home, Greenfield, with the Rev. Don McMillin, pastor of the First Christian Church here, in charge. Burial will be in White Oak Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p. m. Monday.

The Sheriff's Job

Now, this Sheriff's job is a curious one;
Like the housewife's work, it's never done.
Calls come by night and come by day;
They may be near, or miles away.
Do hurry up, says the voice of the caller
You're badly needed in Possum Holler.
Paw's on a rampage; he's got a gun;
Been looking for Maw since half-past one.
So we jump in our flivver, hit the trail;
And drive like a streamliner carrying the mail.
Our only hope and all we can figger,
Is to be on hand before Paw pulls the trigger.
We finally arrive and amid confusion—
We learn the affair was simple delusion.
Paw with his gun was just hunting squirrels;
Maw had gone to school with the two oldest girls.
Next day we're hunting a mottle-faced cow;
That night we referee a nice family row.
Now, that's just a sample of what we do;
An endless variety of the old and the new.

It may be a prowler, a burglar, a drunk;
He may steal your billfold, your watch or your trunk.
We set out to catch him, and we do our best;
We catch our percentage and lose the rest.
We can't catch them all, for some leave no clue—
They don't leave their cards, like the candidates do.
Sometimes they plead guilty, and the judge will scold.
Then half the country will want them paroled.
They blame the depression, the New Deal, and tariff—
But most of the folks put the blame on the Sheriff.
So it's quite a game if you stay right in —
You'll get a pat on the back, and a sock on the chin.
But I like it, and I'm shedding no tears.
And I'd like to be your sheriff for another four years.

Hall gave chase again, but this time it did not last long; the youth crashed into a tree near the intersection of Lakeview Ave., and Jupiter St.

BY THE TIME Hall reached the scene, the driver had fled afoot and Hall called from a house nearby for the police cruiser. Patrolmen Elmer Kelly and Lang Laytard then joined the search.

About half an hour later, the youth walked into the police station and gave himself up.

His father was called, and after a long talk with police, the youth was cited to appear in Juvenile Court here and then released to his father.

Eventually it was learned that the station wagon belonged to Faye Washburn, Jr., 543 Comfort Lane. The police report fixed the damage at $400 to $500 and noted it was a total loss.

No mention was made of injury to the young driver.

Hall explained that he was on his way to make his nightly check of the "sewer lift station" on Jupiter St., when he first saw the speeding station wagon.

stored. Authorities arrested 32 demonstrators. Russia protested to Britain and France that the invasion preliminary of closing the eastern Mediterranean to commercial shipping amounted to aggression against other states as well as Egypt.

Damascus radio quoted the Egyptians as saying seven British and French planes were shot down yesterday during a two-hour raid on Cairo. The British admitted only the loss of one fighter plane at that stage.

The Suez Canal remained blocked by ships the British and French accused the Egyptians of sinking in the waterway. The Egyptians have countercharged that British and French planes sank the ships and blocked the canal.

The Egyptians appeared to be paying little attention to the Israelis, whose invasion of the Sinai Peninsula last Monday preceded the British-French action.

Israel's latest military claim was the reported capture of two Tiran islands which command the entrance to the Gulf of Aquaba. This would provide Israel free access to the gulf and its main port of Elath, on the southwest end of Israel.

Mrs. Minnie Morris Dies Sunday Night

Mrs. Minnie Morris, 80, widow of Jonathan Morris, died at 7:30 p. m. Sunday in University Hospital, Columbus, where she had been a patient three weeks.

Mrs. Morris, who lived at 214 McKinley Ave., had been in failing health three years and seriously ill for the past three weeks.

The daughter of Richard and Sarah Pearce, she was born and raised in Fayette County where she had spent the greater part of her life. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and its missionary society, and the Victoria Bible Class, taking an active interest in all church affairs.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Gertrude Vincent, Washington C. H., and a niece, Mrs. Delbert S. Mann, St. Louis. Her husband died in 1942.

Services will be at 3 p. m. Wednesday in the Gerstner Funeral Home, with the Rev. Harold B. Twining, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Washington Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after noon Tuesday.

Ernest Pollard, 76, Dies at Greenfield

Ernest Pollard, 76, died early Monday in the Greenfield Hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Pollard, a retired farmer, had lived in Greenfield for the last 15 years. He was a member of the Greenfield Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Jane; two sons, Ernest Jr. and Elmer, both of Grove City; two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Wise, Greenfield, and Mrs. Edith Redkey, Columbus; a sister, Mrs. Mildred Meadors, South Charleston; a brother, Orin Pollard, Sabina; and 12 grandchildren.

Four children preceded him in death.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Struve Funeral Home, Greenfield, with the Rev. Clair S. Emerick officiating. Burial will be in Greenfield Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after noon Tuesday.

Mrs. Sadie Pollard Heart Attack Victim

Mrs. Sadie Pollard, 67, of 829 Lakeview Ave., died of a heart attack Monday morning shortly after she reported for work at the U. S. Shoe Corp. plant in Greenfield.

Mrs. Pollard was a member of the Church of Christ in Christian Union here.

She is survived by a daughter, Miss Dorothy Pollard, Chicago; a son, Raymond, Cincinnati; a sister, Mrs. Maude Mead, Waverly; four brothers, Herman and Elmer Ward, of Waverly, and Ralph and Raymond Ward, Columbus.

Funeral arrangements, which will be under direction of the Gerstner Funeral Home, have not been completed.

Record Crowd Attends Gun, Relic Exhibit

All previous records for numbers of exhibitors, guns, Indian relics, and visitors, were broken at the fall meeting of the Central Ohio Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association, Inc., held at the Merchant's Building at the Fairground Saturday and Sunday.

Several thousand guns and Indian relics, as well as many other articles, were offered for sale and trade.

Not only was the out of county attendance larger than ever before, but more local residents attended.

Large numbers of guns and other articles changed hands, and many persons who were not exhibitors, took guns to the show and sold or traded them for something they wanted.

EXHIBITORS were here from several states, many coming Friday evening and spending two nights at hotels and motels, but as usual, most of the exhibitors came Sunday morning.

Sixteen new members were enrolled during the day, bringing the total membership to around 450.

Office Stookey, president the past two years, had announced that he would not be a candidate for the position another year due to other business, and at the annual election Charles L. Kising was chosen president, Ervin Ritter, New Martinsburg, vice president, and Coyt A. Stookey, secretary-treasurer.

Directors elected included Office Stookey, Kenneth Craig, O. O. Bush, Paul Souther, Walter McLean and Van Matlock.

The VFW Post auxiliary served lunch throughout the day.

The next meeting will be held in January with the time and place to be announced later.

Drunk Driver Fined, Jailed

Lewis H. Reed, 61, Route 4, arrested at 3 a. m. Saturday on Paint St. and charged with driving while drunk, was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to 10 days in jail and suspended from driving for a year when he pleaded guilty in Municipal Court Monday morning.

Judge Max G. Dice, however, granted him permission to drive to and from Washington C. H. to do his shopping and for emergencies. He was arrested by Sgt. Charles Foster and Patrolman Elmer Kelly.

Wiant Speakers At Grace Church

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Wiant were the featured speakers at the third in the series of Sunday Evening Fellowship suppers at Grace Methodist Church.

Ralph Nisley was in charge of the worship service in the Sanctuary. The choir was composed of men from the Men's Bible Class who led the congregation in a hymn sing.

Dr. Wiant's topic was "Fellowship with People in Korea." Mrs. Wiant showed slides of Korea and Sarawak to the Senior MYF group.

Next Sunday will be the last in the series of meetings, and at that time, Dr. Wiant will show pictures taken in many of the countries where he has lived and worked as an architect.

Mailing Package Overseas? Better Check the Deadlines

It's later than you think... and if you want to send a Christmas gift package to someone overseas, you had better be getting out your wrapping paper and stamps now.

This goes for civilians as well as those in the military service. Postmaster Clark Wickensimer said.

For reasonable assurance that your package will be delivered before Christmas, Wickensimer said it should be mailed not later than Nov. 15. The only exception is the Dec. 1 deadline for air parcel post; but for this there are some restrictions as to size, such as the 2-pound weight limit.

PACKAGES for Alaska, Puerto Rico and Hawaii, while overseas, may be mailed up until Dec. 1, Wickensimer explained, because the distance is not so great.

The Washington C. H. postmaster summarized the Christmas gift package situation like this:

Before you arrange to send a gift package to an overseas address, considerable time and expense may be saved if you first find out about the requirements of the U. S. Export Control Regulations and the gift parcel regulations of the country of destination.

Postal authorities will not accept gift parcels which do not conform to the export - import control regulations. In order to have some as-urance that your gift parcel will reach its destination, it is important that you follow the regulations of the country of destination governing the contents of the package and other requirements.

Leo W. Hart, 61, Dies Here Sunday

Leo Willard Hart, 61, of 317 Worley St., died Sunday evening in his residence. A carpenter, Mr. Hart was a native of Highland County and had come here five years ago from the Leesburg community.

He was the son of Thomas and Clarabelle Reed Hart.

Survivors are his wife, Ann Irene; two daughters, Mrs. Louella McKillip, Muncie, Ind., and Mrs. Doris Hopkins, Dayton; a son, Herman, Dayton; two stepchildren, Francis King, Amherst, and Mrs. Eleanor Simmons, Greenfield; seven grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two brothers, Ralph V. Hart, Wilmington, and Winifred Hart, Martinsville.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Walker and Anderson Funeral Home, Greenfield, with the Rev. Don McMillin, pastor of the First Christian Church here, in charge. Burial will be in White Oak Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p. m. Monday.

Future Teachers Meet at WHS

The third annual meeting of the Future Teachers of America was held Thursday in the library at Washington High School.

Mrs. Arnold Grillo, advisor, read the report of the point system committee which will be mimeographed so each student may have a copy.

The meeting was then turned over to Nancy Reno, president.

A committee for the senior breakfast was named and includes Linda Halliday, chairman; Marilyn Miller and Carolyn Buxton.

Linda Anderson introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Nada Douce, home economics teacher.
